

one case of resignation was then proceeded with and resulted as follows:—Messrs. Henry Harris, R. Weinberg, L. Gradner, S. Goldstein, H. Sandler, A. Openheimer, H. Rosen and J. Frank, Mesdames H. K. Sieradzki, L. Schrire, J. Frank, B. Nussbaum, S. Goldstein, B. Hammerschlag and W. Stern.

Mr. B. Jacobs gave notice of motion that he will move at the next Annual Meeting that the Executive be elected by the General body of members at the Annual Meeting.

The meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

o o o

Mr. Joel Myerson achieved a decided personal triumph on Wednesday night at the City Hall when a Complimentary Concert was given in conjunction with the Cape Town Orchestra and with the assistance of many well known local artistes.

Mr. Myerson, since his appearance in the Peninsula has delighted many large audiences with his singing, and on Wednesday he simply excelled himself. The concert was graced with the presence of H.E. The Governor-General and H.R.H. Princess Beatrice, and the Hall was filled to capacity, with an attentive and thoroughly appreciative audience. Mr. Myerson's first entrance was in a duet from "Cavalleria Rusticana" with Miss Helen Chiappibi, and he then took part in the final trio from Gounod's "Faust" with Miss Beryl Lucas and Mr. J.

Llewellyn White. Together with Miss Isobelle Brodie Mr. Myerson submitted a duet from the first act of "Madame Butterfly." On each occasion the audience gave full expression to the enjoyment given them by delightful interpretations.

A tumultuous reception was accorded Mr. Myerson on the conclusion of his "Celeste Aide" the preceding recitative and the beautiful Russian Love Romance, and Mr. Myerson concluded his personal share in the programme with an exceptionally well rendered "Kol Nidrei", supported by the Orchestra. There is no doubt that Mr. Myerson was in excellent form and thoroughly merited the great reception that greeted him.

Miss Fanny Taback and Mr. Harry Bloom gave a duet from the "Miserere" Scene ("Il Trovatore") which was much applauded and Mr. Jan J. Smith was heard to advantage in the "Vulcan's Song (Philemon & Baucis)". The other vocal soloists were Mr. J. Llewellyn White, Miss Beryl Lucas, Mr. Hubert Curling and Miss Mabel Leveson. A group of piano solos by Miss Elsie Hall was exceedingly well received by an audience that appreciated her high technique and natural grace. Mr. Geoffrey Miller and Mr. V. Hely-Hutchinson were the accompanists.

o o o

The New Synagogue, Muizenberg, on Wednesday, was beautifully decorated with flowers on the occasion of the wedding of Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Adler of Muizenberg, to Mr. Joseph Selby.

The picturesque ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Kirschner of the Gardens Synagogue. The bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Salmon, the brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, were the unterfuhrers; Mr. Reginald Harris, the best man, and Messrs. A. and V. Buirski and H. and C. Friedjohn were the canopy bearers.

The very beautiful frock worn by the bride was of ivory pleated georgette, with inlet silver lace, caught on the right shoulder with orange blossom. The veil was of finely embroidered Brussels net, quaintly arranged over an oriental coronet of silver tissue, effectively designed with orange blossom buds and pearls. Silver shoes and stockings completed the toilette, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Sylvia Adler, acted as maid of honour, daintily dressed in apricot georgette with a design worked in small pearls. The frock was trimmed with ostrich feathers of the same shade.

Miss Lily Adler, another sister of the bride, and Miss Cecily Firkser, the bride's cousin, were the two charming bridesmaids. Both were gowned in mauve georgette, embroidered in small pearls, and all three of the bride's attendants wore pearl head-dresses.

The sweet little page boy, Raymond Salmon, was dressed as a Cupie, and a delightful, dainty little flower-girl, in a short frock of fluffy pink tulle was Audrey Salmon.

After the ceremony a large number of friends of the bride and bridegroom gathered at the residence of the bride's parents, where a very happy evening was spent.

The bride's mother received her guests in a handsome gown of black charmeuse, made with a long back panel, embroidered in Oriental style. Ostrich feather trimming provided an effective finish, and her smart black hat was finished with ospreys. Mrs. Salmon was charmingly gowned in soft black pleated georgette closely beaded, with hat en suite.

The bride's travelling frock was a three-piece costume of silver grey morocain with floral royal blue top, and a little hat to match. The honeymoon will be spent on a voyage up the coast and on the Rand, the newly-married couple later settling in Cape Town.

A special meeting of the Cape Jewish Board of Guardians was held on Wednesday to elect Officers for the ensuing year and resulted as follows:—Councillor, Sam Goldstein, Chairman; Mr. R. Weinberg, Vice Chairman; Mrs. B. Saphra, Chairlady; Councillor L. Grandner, Hon. Treasurer. The Committee is composed of the following:—Messrs. Henry Harris, S. Shaskolsky, H. Sandler O. Basson, M. Papert, A. Oppenheimer, J. Frank, H. Rosen Mesdames. B. Nussbaum, H. K. Sieradzki, B. Rollnick, A. Teperon, I. Wittenberg, S. Goldstein, J. Frank, L. Schrire, R. Lewis, B. Hammerschlag and W. Stern, with Mr. J. Carasov, Secretary.

Mrs. H. K. Sieradzki and Mrs. B. Nussbaum were appointed to represent the Board on the National Council of women.

o o o

The Annual Prize Distribution for Hebrew and Secular Education of the Orphans took place at the Cape Jewish Orphanage on both to those who enjoy them for their breakfast and also to those who sell them.

TIGER OATS ARE Profitable

Tiger Oats are selling better than ever.

First of all, because they are so delicious fresh and nourishing. Secondly, because they are being extensively advertised all over South Africa.

The Cereal Manufacturing
Co., Ltd.,
Moorreesburg, C.P.

...BOYS' WARM OVERCOATS, from 25/6, for size 3 at Ward & Salmons.