

BLOEMFONTEIN JEWRY.(From our own Correspondent.)*

Bloemfontein, April 28.

Councillor Sol Harris, who has been intimately associated with the public and communal life of the town, has just received his appointment from the government as a Commissioner for Oaths for the district of Bloemfontein. This distinction is cordially appreciated by the many friends of Mr. Harris, as a worthy recognition of his standing in the community as a man who has been prominently connected with local Jewry for the past quarter of a century. Mr. Harris, who hails from Ireland, has watched and assisted the development of numerous Jewish movements, and is held in great esteem here.

o o o

The engagement is announced of Mr. Ben Wilder of Edenburg, to Miss Minnie Robinson, youngest daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. A. Robinson of Cape Town. Mr. Wilder is well-known in Bloemfontein and district.

o o o

Owing to the heavy rains the tennis tournament arranged by the Judean Tennis Club had to be abandoned again this week end.

o o o

On May 11th, the local committee of the South African Jewish Orphanage is giving a Ball at the Communal Hall, and it is anticipated that a very large crowd will be present. Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Haarburger will act as host and hostess, while the Anglo French Orchestra has been engaged to provide the music.

o o o

During the recent native riots here, several of the young Jewish men enrolled themselves as special constables and took an active part in quelling the disturbances.

o o o

Mr. I. H. Haarburger, Chairman of the Congregation, is proceeding to Cape Town in his capacity as president of the Free State Chamber of Commerce to attend a special Congress of the associated Chamber. Mr. Haarburger, who is also Chairman of the Finance Committee on the Town Council, yesterday delivered his budget speech, and was warmly complimented upon the lucid and interesting manner in which he went into the numerous financial problems

New Bijou.
Enemies Of Women

His Majesty's

After a successful season in Jean Webster's charming comedy, "Daddy Long Legs," Miss Renee Kelly and her company will, on Wednesday next at the matinee performance at His Majesty's Theatre, present Sir J. Barrie's exquisite and delightful fantasy, "A Kiss for Cinderella."

The Empire.

Vaudeville ends this week at the Empire Theatre and, on Monday next, a new London company will present "Sally", one of the greatest song and dance show success of modern times. The whole of the company has been specially selected and arrived here a few days ago. Messrs. African Theatres have spared no expense in order that the new production shall be one of the most notable ever presented.

The New Bijou

Rex Beach's "The Spoilers" was the attraction at the Bijou during the whole of the week and, on Monday next a film version of another of the novels of Ibanez, "The Enemies of Women" will be screened. Plans have already been opened for that wonderful picture "The Covered Wagon", which will be shown the week commencing May 11th.

The Orpheum.

The vaudeville items at the Orpheum this week consisted of Barker and Wynne in "Song Impressions and Fowl Language" and Nick Morton, "The Talkative Songster." The principal picture during the earlier part of the week was "The Midnight Alarm." An exciting picture full of thrills.

Latest Music

There seems to be no end to the excellent lighter class of music that Messrs B Feldman & Co, continue to publish. Looking through their latest selections one can commend any of the following:—"After the Storm", "Ain't Got No One—Never Had", "On the Z-R-3", "Trip Along", "Mamma's Baby Boy", "My Radio Dream Girl", "Come to Me," "You Flew Away from the Nest," "A Mother's A Mother Forever," "Roll On, To-morrow Night".

HIS MAJESTY'S

(African Theatres, Ltd.)

LAST PERFORMANCES

Nightly at 8.15

Final Matinee: Saturday at 2.20.

Renee Kelly

In Jean Webster's Delightful Comedy:

Daddy Long-Legs

NEXT WEDNESDAY:

A Kiss For Cinderella,

At Matinee Performance

Plans at Carlton Hotel.

EMPIRE

(African Theatres Ltd.)

Nightly at 8.15.

Matinee Saturday at 2.30

FEMINA QUARTETTE*Ross, Barker and McLennan*Grant and Faber*Irene Forde*The Pantons*Sydney and Adelaide*Les Augustines*Dio-Pia

MONDAY NEXT:

"SALLY."

Plans at Carlton Hotel.

The Orpheum.
Sporting Youth.

AND VAUDEVILLE

The Carlton.
The Silent Partner.

The House of Superlative Attractions.

Messrs. B. Feldman & Co.

Messrs B. Feldman & Co, are undoubtedly living up to their reputation of providing right songs for the right situation, and those who are seeking topical numbers could not do better than select from the following list:—"Who is The One That You're Fooling Now?" "I'd Like a Basin Full of That", "Paree," "Cheer Up the Old Folks At Home" "G'wan With It," "Far Away From London," "She Said "Yes!"—She Said "No!"", "My California," and "Everybody Loves My Baby."