"A KISS FOR CINDERELLA."

Miss Renee Kelly has chosen a very pretty phantasy for her last performances in Johannesburg. On Wednesday evening, at His Majesty's Theatre, theatre-goers were delighted with the production of "A Kiss for Cinderella," in which the author, Sir James Barrie, demonstrated that fine fairy touch of his which has made him so popular. The expert hand of Mr. Leon M. Lion as producer was evidenced all round, and a fine performance was given.

No one should miss this last opportunity of seeing so gifted an actress as Miss Renee Kelly, assisted by a fine group of artists, in a play by one of England's greatest dramatists.
