MR. AND MRS. WOLF HILLMAN.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hillman were "At Home" at "Peridene," Houghton, Johannesburg, on Sunday afternoon, in celebration of their silver wedding. Members of the family from various parts of the country were present. The function was also largely attended by representatives from every section of the community, who expressed their heartiest congratulations.

On the Sunday previous, presentations were made to Mr. and Mrs. Hillman from certain communal institutions, in the work of which they take a prominent part. During this week a presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. Hillman on behalf of the S.A. Palestine (Binyan) Corporation, Ltd., of which Mr. Hillman is a director.

Mr. J. Janower expressed regret at the absence on that occasion of Mrs. Hillman, and asked Mr. Hillman to convey the wishes of the Board to her. Mr. Janower stated that the presentation was a token of esteem in which Mr. Hillman was held by his colleagues on the "Binyan," and served as an appreciation for his activities on behalf of their work in Palestine.

In reply, Mr. Hillman expressed his sincere thanks for the kindly thought shown to him and his wife that day. They would both cherish the gift all their lives.

The presentation took the form of a beautiful leather bound album of Palestinian scenes, artistically designed at the Bezalel School of Arts and Crafts in Palestine.

MR. GEORGE G. GIORINI.

There arrived in Capetown from Palestine on Monday by the "Carnarvon Castle," Mr. George G. Giorini, a famous dramatic tenor and a member of the Palestine Opera. It is the intention of Mr. Giorini to give several concerts in South Africa.

SOLOMONS—TAYLOR.

The marriage was solemnised on Sunday evening at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue of Miss Fanny Taylor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Taylor, and Mr. Sydney Solomons, youngest son of Mrs. R. Solomons and the late Mr. Solomons, of London.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. L. Landau (Chief Rabbi) and the Rev. S. Rabec. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. L. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Crane and Mrs. A. Palm, and the canopy-bearers Messrs. Julius Wexter, Mannie Palm, Crane and Norman Sack. The best man was Mr. Julius Taylor, the bride's brother.

A reception was held afterwards in the H.O.D. Hall, which was attended by 300 guests. The toasts of the evening were proposed by Dr. I. J. Balkin, Mr. Percy Crane and Mr. Friedlander.

HURWITZ—RISKOWITZ.

On Wednesday evening at the Jeppe Synagogue, Johannesburg, the wedding took place of Miss Cecelia Riskowitz, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riskowitz, and Mr. Isaac Meyer Hurwitz, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hurwitz, of Port Elizabeth.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Kaplan, and the unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. Riskowitz and Mr. and Mrs. Hurwitz. The canopy bearers were Messrs. Harry Croock, Charles Croock, Harry Riskowitz and Aaron Cohen. Mr. Jack Knep, the best man, was assisted by Mr. Aaron Cohen.
