BROWN—DAVIS.

A pretty wedding took place on the 5th inst. at the Yeoville Synagogue, the Rev. N. Lopato officiating, when Miss Phoebe Stella Davis, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Davis, was married to Mr. James Brown, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. I. Brown. The unterfuhrers were the parents of the bride, and the brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Isaacs. The canopy-bearers were Messrs. M. Davis, F. Benjamin, I. Kalusky and P. Rose, and the duties of the best man were carried out by Mr. A. Kaye. After the ceremony a largely-attended reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, "Arcady," Observatory Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Brickman, of Johannesburg, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter Mary to Myer Klein, of Pemba, Northern Rhodesia.

Rabbi M. Katz, of Telz, Russia, son of Mrs. J. Katz, of Johannesburg, and the late Mr. Katz, who reached Capetown by the Windsor Castle on Monday on a short holiday, arrived in Johannesburg on Tuesday, and was met by his mother and brother, Dr. S. Katz, and other friends.

Dr. I. Schapera, whose book on "The Khoisan Peoples of South Africa (Bushmen and Hottentots)" has just been published in London, began the second half of his series of popular lectures on the native races of South Africa on Wednesday at the Witwatersrand University. His subject for the rest of the courses will be the Bantu peoples, with special reference to their social organisation, economic and political life, religion and magic. The lectures will be held every Wednesday evening in the central buildings of the University, Milner Park, and attendance at them is open free of charge to the general public.

THE GIORINI CONCERT.

Great interest is being taken in Zionist circles in Johannesburg and the Reef in the forthcoming concert of Mr. Giorgio Giorini, the leading tenor of the Palestine Hebrew Opera company. This function will be held at the Selborne Hall on August 16th, and Mr. Giorini will be heard in extensive repertoire, including many operatic scores, folk-songs in Hebrew, Italian, German, Russian and Yiddish. The "forte" of this singer is the new Hebrew-Palestinian song which has come into existence as a result of Jewish immigration and the revival of the Hebrew language in the Jewish Homeland.

OVERKANTOR M. KATZIN.

An announcement of interest is made by the United Hebrew Congregation of Johannesburg. This is to the effect that Oberkantor M. Katzin, who arrived here some time ago from Europe, will conduct the services at the Park Synagogue, Wolmarans Street, on Friday evening, August 8th and Saturday morning, August 9th.

The Jewish public is invited to join in the services conducted by this cantor, who has come here with a fine reputation from Europe.

MR. VICTOR CHENKIN.

Mr. Victor Chenkin, the actor singer, who in his recitals in Johannesburg recently proved himself a great artist, opened his second season at the Selborne Hall last night and attracted a large and enthusiastic audience.

His next performance will be given on Saturday evening at the Selborne Hall and lovers of real art should not miss the cultured singing and international interpretations of this artist.
