BROKEN HILL.

On August 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Hochstein gave a "Sundowner Party" to celebrate the marriage of their son, Mr. L. Hochstein, of Livingstone, who is at present in America.

The greater majority of the community was present, and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent. During the party the sum of £5 was collected for the Jewish National Fund, which has been remitted to the headquarters in Johannesburg.

KIMBERLEY.

The head office of the Jewish National Fund in Johannesburg has received £42 17s. 7d. in respect of box clearances made on the 17th inst., and £12 12s. for tree donations on the occasion of the 26th anniversary of the death of Dr. Herzl.

Outstanding items in the clearance of boxes are: Zionist Hall (Kimberley), £5 1s. 10d.; Mr. Vogelman (Douglas), £4 15s. 6d.; I. Shapiro (Free State Road), £3 4s. 4d.; Mr. Hossiasohn (Postmasburg), £3 0s. 8d.; S. Rosenstein (Warrenton), £2 19s.; L. Kleinman (Beaconsfield), £1 5s. 3d.; J. Kanushefsky (Old Main Street), £1 2s.; H. Damelin (New Main Street), Mrs. Talmud (Warren Street) and R. Awerbuck (Stockdale Street), each £1.

PORT ELIZABETH.

The Dunam Drive has benefited by an amount of £8 18s., being £6 10s. realised as the result of a raffle organised by Mrs. Elion and £2 8s. from Mrs. Lappin for a similar raffle.

POSTMASBURG.

The head office of the Jewish National Fund, Johannesburg, has received a cheque for £7 11s. 6d. from Mr. Ch. Winokur in respect of clearance of National Fund boxes which he carried out at Postmasburg.

Mr. Winokur, who is travelling about the country on business, has shown remarkable devotion to the Jewish National Fund, and has invariably undertaken such onerous jobs as clearing boxes and, in general, propagating Zionist ideas and sentiments in a number of small centres which he has occasion to visit.

It is with extreme gratification that we note that on this occasion the box of Messrs. Voigt & Davidowitz at Postmasburg yielded the excellent sum of £7. This box had been cleared only six weeks before, when a very substantial amount was found in it.

CORRIGENDUM.

We regret that a serious error has crept into the list of acknowledgments from Capetown published in our issue of the 15th instant. Instead of "Golden Book inscription by Mrs. S. Levensohn in the name of her late husband," please read "Golden Book inscription on the occasion of the Barmitzvah of the son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Levensohn, £20 3s. 6d."

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Visit of Mr. Cornfeld.

The annual general meeting of the Griqualand West Ezrath Zion Association was held in the Zionist Hall, Lennox Street, on Sunday, 17th inst. Mr. A. Slosberg, chairman of the society, presided over a fairly large gathering. After the usual business had been disposed of, Mr. P. Cornfeld, who was in Kimberley for the week-end, delivered an interesting lecture on the present position in Palestine, and expressed the hope that in the future Zionists in Kimberley would be able to register progress in every department.

Mr. Slosberg expressed thanks to Mr. Cornfeld for his valuable address.

The newly elected committee is as follows:—Mr. A. Slosberg (chairman), Mr. M. Blumenthal and Rev. M. Konviser (vice-chairmen), Mr. H. Stoller (treasurer), Adv. D. Cohen and Miss Rose Shapiro (joint hon. secretaries), Messrs. H. Damelin and R. Awerbuck (trustees).

Committee: Messrs. E. Bloom, J. Frank, H. Frank, J. Maresky, Rev. Ch. Goldberg, L. Barnett, Mesdames R. Awerbuck, H. Stoller, H. Damelin, R. Shles, Misses L. Levinsohn, T. Segal, F. and G. Brenner, F. Awerbuck and D. Shapiro.

The Hebrew Classes.

The prize distribution to the pupils of the Hebrew Classes took place in the Zionist Hall on Saturday, the 16th inst. Mr. W. Sagar, president of the congregation, presided over a large audience, and Mrs. Sagar distributed the prizes.

The chairman reviewed the work of the school for the last twelve months, and referred with pride to the excellent report of the examiner. He congratulated the pupils on their successes, and thanked the teaching staff for devoting so much time and thought to their work. Before the prizes were distributed, little Mollie Goldberg handed Mrs. Sagar a bouquet.

Rev. M. Konviser, principal of the school, delivered an interesting address on the importance of education.

An excellent concert was given by the pupils. The programme was as follows:—Piano solo by Helen Maresky; recitation by Hilda Gluckman; song by Lionel Apter; duet dance by Maureen and Ena Price; piano solo by Henry Goldman; recitation by Shirley Lewis; dance by Ray Klein; piano duet by Lionel and Samuel Apter; recitation by Morris Levine; piano solo by Ethel Brenner; song by Helen Maresky; dance by Mill e Gershowitz; group song by scholars of the Hebrew School; duet dance by Mollie Goldberg and Mavis Barnett; and dialogue by Robert Blumenthal and Issy Goldberg.

Mr. Schrire proposed and the Rev. Goldberg seconded a hearty vote of thanks to the artistes, and to Miss G. Brenner for accompanying the various items.

The following were the prize-winners:—Class I., 1, Harold Lusman; 2, Michael Goldberg. Class II., 1, Victor Gorohovsky; 2, Abe Kahanowitz; 3, Simon Maresky. Class III., 1, Hilda Gluckman; 2, Bennie Shein; 3, Marie Odes. Class III.b, 1, Morris Levine; 2, Nettie Kangisser; 3, Mabel Shein. Class IV., 1, Harold Gluckman; 2, Helen Maresky; 3, Simon Klein. General aggregate prizes: Ruth Salkinder, Minnie Milunsky, Solly Odes, Nathan Goldberg.

On Wednesday, the 20th inst., a bioscope-vaudeville entertainment was held in the Grand Theatre, Beaconsfield. Songs were rendered by Miss T. Segal and Mr. N. Brayton respectively. Both possess voices of remarkable quality and power. A Bisque play, presented by Miss Sylvia Kirsh, was an outstanding success. During the interval sweets were sold, the proceeds considerably augmenting the funds.

The name of Master Shirley Lewis was inadvertently omitted from the list of Eisteddfod successes.

Congratulations are being extended to Miss Rose Maris, who won the gold medal for Afrikaans elocution in the Eisteddfod, and to Miss Fanny Awerbuck, who gained Honours in the Senior Trinity College of London examinations (elocution).
