MR. SOLOMON Y. JACOBI.

Arrival of Representative of Ort-Oze-Emigdirect.

There is now in Johannesburg Mr. Solomon Y. Jacobi, the official representative of the Ort-Oze-Emigdirect—the Central Jewish Relief Organisations. The visitor is a well known communal worker and a prominent member of the Central Board of the Organisations concerned.

Mr. Jacobi has come to this country for the purpose of raising funds, urgently needed, for the important reconstruction work being carried out on behalf of stricken Jews in many parts of Eastern Europe.

Mr. Jacobi is at present engaged in meeting various representatives of the local community and hopes shortly to form a South African reconstruction campaign committee to set in motion a drive for funds.

An interview with Mr. Jacobi has been taken by a representative of the Zionist Record, but owing to this issue being devoted to the Dunam Drive this interview is held over and will be duly published in next week's issue.

WULFSOHN—SOLOVEITZIG.

Dr. J. L.
