GERMISTON'S FIRST WOMAN ATTORNEY.

Miss S. Goldblatt's Success.

The distinction of being the first woman in Germiston—if not in the whole East Rand area—to qualify as an attorney belongs to Miss Sonia Goldblatt, who has passed her final examination. Miss Goldblatt's success is the more notable because she did not attend law classes, but concentrated on home study. She matriculated at the Germiston High School, and was articled to Mr. M. Rosenstein, of Germiston. She intends to take up a position with a legal firm in Johannesburg.

FIRST WEDDING AT LA ROCHELLE SYNAGOGUE.

Broomberg—Schur.

An unique event took place on Sunday last, when the first wedding in the newly erected La Rochelle Synagogue was solemnised. The bride was Miss Helen Broomberg and the bridegroom Mr. L. Schur, of Bulawayo. The synagogue was tastefully decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. L. Kaplan. The unterfuhrers were the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Arkin. The duties of best man were ably carried out by Mr. M. Broomberg, brother of the bride.

A special gift to the bride and bridegroom was made by Mr. M. Maisel, President of the Congregation, as a tribute from the Synagogue in honour of the event.
