

Carnival

For the Redemption of the Sharon

The preparations for the Carnival are proceeding very satisfactorily. Considerable progress has been made in the rehearsals for the tableaux. In order to give the occasion a true carnival aspect, members of the public are encouraged to prepare appropriate costumes representing some Jewish type or period. The Carnival office will be glad to offer any suggestions in this direction.

The Carnival Executive has been very much exercised during the past few weeks by the difficulty of at once ensuring the artistic level of the Carnival and at the same time catering for the general public. After due consideration, it was decided to have two separate evenings, the first on Tuesday, October 6th, and the second on Wednesday, October 7th. The main features of the Carnival will be produced on both occasions. The first evening, however, the 6th October, will have the additional feature of being a Bal Masque, at which the price of admission will be £1 1s. per couple. On the second evening there will be no dancing, and the price of admission will be 2s. 6d. per head.

The Guild Performance.

Judging from the performances given recently, the production of the play "A Murder Has Been Arranged" by the Dramatic Section of the Jewish Guild, on the 29th instant, in aid of the Carnival effort, promises to be an outstanding success. The play is sure to make a strong appeal to the public as it is of gripping interest throughout and the acting is of a very high standard indeed. The production is in the very capable hands of Miss Carol Levitas. The following are the characters of the play: Miss Croze, Posy Salkinder; Mr Cavendish (Band Conductor). Sander Ostrowiak; Mrs. Wragg (Cook), Elsie Levitas; Jimmy North, Leonard Tannenbaum; Lady Jasper, Sadie Melamed; Mrs. Arthur, Ida Maltz; Sir Charles Jasper, Melville Festenstein; Maurice Mullins, Theo H. Sachs; The Dumb Woman, Carol Levitas. The following are responsible for the direction of the performance: Stage Manager for the Dramatic Section, Theo. H. Levy; Stage Assistance, Norman Friedman; Properties, Max J. Isaacson; Prompt, Dorothy Wasserman; Lighting and effects, Raymond Fisher; Chairman of Dramatic Section, David L. Kahn; Costumes, May Edouin.

Miss Carol Levitas.

(By courtesy of "Rand Daily Mail.")

Repeat Performance of Mock Congress.

Owing to the unqualified success of the Mock Congress staged by the S.A. Zeire Zion on the 29th June at the Jewish Guild, numerous requests have been made by the public to stage a repeat performance. This has been arranged to take place next Sunday, the 12th instant, at the Alhambra Bioscope Hall, Doornfontein, at 8.15 p.m. Admission will be 1s. and 1s. 6d. Patrons are advised to come early to avoid the disappointment of being unable to gain admission.

Forthcoming Events.

We again draw the attention of our readers to the various functions which have been arranged to take place during the months of July and August.

On July 18th a card party is being held at the residence of Mrs. J. Emdin, 108 Hunter Street, Yeoville.

The evening of July 25th is a busy one. Mrs. F. H. Meyerowitz, of Twelfth Avenue, Mayfair, is arranging a card party at her home, while a similar function is being organised by Mrs. I. B. Rudaizky, of Hillbrow Street, Berea. The Doornfontein Branch is also holding its dance at the H.O.D. Hall.

August 1st has been reserved for the function arranged by Mesdames N. B. and Frank Levy, at the residence of Mrs. N. B. Levy, 52 Doris Street.

Remember! August 4th is the date fixed for the ladies' doubles tournament at the Wimbledon Courts, organised by Mrs. S. Furman, of 53 Webb Street, Yeoville.

Utility Bazaar.

The big utility bazaar, arranged by the Yeoville Branch, will be held all day at the Jewish Guild on August 5th. There will be stalls catering for the needs of the housewife. Teas and luncheons will be served. Ladies, come and buy your household requirements and at the same time support the National Fund.

Mrs. A. I. Miller, Lily Avenue, Berea, is having her function on August 5th.

August 15th is the evening on which Mrs. S. M. Gordon, of St. Andrew's Road, Parktown, is arranging her party.

On August 22nd Mrs. B. Rheinhold, of 1 St. Paul's Road, Houghton, and also Mrs. H. Maisels, of 18 Eton Road, Parktown, are each arranging a big card party at their respective residences.

A bridge afternoon is being organised by Mesdames Abelheim and Weinbrenn for August 24th.

The grand cabaret, under the auspices of the Observatory Branch, will take place at the Langham Hotel on the 26th August.

The variety evening, which promises to be another very entertaining function, is to be held at Mrs. C. Leon's residence on August 16th.

Under the auspices of the Parktown Branch, Mrs. Youngleson, 26 Seymour Avenue, is organising a card party at her residence.

The end of the month, August 30th, is marked by the pleasant entertainment which is arranged to take place at the Yeoville Cinema Hall. The Houghton Branch is arranging a play reading and musical evening.

Any enquiries about any of the above functions can be made at the Carnival office, 19 Jeppe Arcade, or Phone Central 2354.

DRINK "FIVE ROSES"—The Tea Without The Tannin Dust.