BERMAN—BOOTCOV.

The marriage of Miss Jean Berman, third daughter of the late Mr. R. Berman and Mrs. Berman, and Mr. Alex Bootcov, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bootcov, took place recently at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue. Dr. J. L. Landau (Chief Rabbi) and Cantor Inspektor officiated, and the unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. L. Trakman and Mr. and Mrs. J. Bootcov. The pole-holders were Messrs. J. Bloom, H. Bootcov, J. Goldman and B. Nathan. Mr. S. Berman carried out the duties of best man. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. H. Berman. The maid-of-honour was Miss Goldie Berman, and the bridesmaids were Miss Fay Zolty and Miss Gertrude Wade.

THE JUDEAN CABARET.

The City Hall in Johannesburg was prettily decorated in white and blue, on Wednesday night, on the occasion of the first Transvaal Judean cabaret, organised by the Transvaal and East Rand Young Israel Executive.

This was one of a series of entertainments being organised by the South African Young Israel Federation for the purpose of raising money to plant a grove of trees in Palestine. The large attendance testified to the popularity of the cause.

The function was under the patronage of the Mayor and Mayoress of Johannesburg, who were present. The organisers of the cabaret were Mr. I. Dunsky, President of the Young Israel Executive, who was the director of ceremonies; the M.C.'s being Miss G. Sack, Miss L. Bolel, Miss F. Roff, Messrs. M. Rubenstein, D. Etkind, S. C. Ostrofsky, H. Weiner and P. Rappoport. Mr. Blankfield represented the combined Judean societies of Johannesburg.
