ASTORIA KINEMA.

Chopin's delicate and melodious music is introduced as a motif in "The Woman Between," an enthralling drama of rivalry in politics and love, which is to be screened at the Astoria Kinema to-morrow (Saturday). Owen Nares appears as the idealistic Socialist who renders Chopin artistically, and Adrienne Allen, more lovely, sophisticated and appealing than ever, is Lady Pamela. The production, which is set against beautiful backgrounds, has been magnificently directed by Miles Mander, and is acted by such popular artists as Owen Nares, Adrienne Allen, David Hawthorne and C. M. Hallard.
