PRESENTATION TO MRS. GREENBERG.

A very pleasant little function took place in the Board Room of the South African Zionist Federation last Thursday afternoon, the 19th inst., when the Johannesburg Jewish National Fund Committee came together to take leave of Mrs. Greenberg prior to her departure on an overseas holiday and to wish her bon voyage.

The opportunity was taken of presenting Mrs. Greenberg with a beautiful silver and enamel brush and comb set as a token of appreciation of her services as Chairlady of the Committee for the "Carnival for the Redemption of the Sharon." The Chairlady, Mrs. K. Gluckman, expressed her genuine pleasure in having so pleasant a task assigned to her, in paying sincere tribute to the value of Mrs. Greenberg's work for the Carnival and hoped that Mrs. Greenberg would come into contact with some of our Zionist workers overseas and would come back strengthened by that contact and ready to continue her work for the Cause.

She also reported on the results of the Carnival and the Dunam Drive in Johannesburg to date, which showed the very gratifying result that by these two efforts the Committee had practically raised the £7,500 it had set out to raise as its quota for the Jewish National Fund.

Mrs. Greenberg then suitably acknowledged her gift and said how very glad she was to have participated in the Carnival and how happy she felt, if by her modest efforts she had helped to achieve its success.
