JOHANNESBURG MUSICAL SOCIETY.

An interesting programme was given on Wednesday night at the Selborne Hall, under the auspices of the Johannesburg Musical Society.

Interest was lent to the occasion by the appearance of Miss Jean Gluckmann, who is well known as the possessor of a fine contralto voice. She is here on a visit from London, where she is studying at the Royal Academy of Music, having won a number of important scholarships. Miss Gluckmann demonstrated the possession of an excellently controlled voice which augurs well for her future success as a great concert artiste.

Miss Suzanne Margolis played a group of piano soli with fine effect and Mr. Jerry Shulman's violin work was rendered with fine intellectual and technical ability. Of special interest was his rendition of Achron's Hebrew Melody. A large audience was present.

The engagement is announced of Rae, only daughter of Mrs. Penkin and the late Mr. S. Penkin, of Capetown, to Alec, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosen, of Johannesburg.

Congratulations are being extended to Rev. A. T. Shrock, B.A. (Minister of the Yeoville Synagogue) and Mrs. Shrock on the birth of a son on the 10th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Hilson, who have been on a visit to Palestine, returned to the Rand by air mail on Friday last.

Guido Jung, the Jewish head of Mussolini's brain trust, was Italy's representative at the Washington Economic Conference. He is experienced in Fascist affairs and a veteran of international conferences dating from the peace treaties with Germany and Austria. He recently took a prominent role in the London Economic Conference.

SHER—SEGAL.

The marriage of Miss Yetty Segal, daughter of Mr. N. Segal (Chairman of the Germiston Zionist Society and of the Hebrew School Section of the United Hebrew Institutions of Germiston) and Mrs. Segal, to Mr. Sam Sher, was solemnised on the 6th inst at the Germiston Synagogue. Rev. W. H. Wyscheik, and the new Cantor, A. Rudy, officiated in conjunction with a fine choir.

Mr. B. Cohen, President of the United Hebrew Institutions of Germiston, offered a presentation, on behalf of the Institutions, to the couple. A presentation was also made by Mr. Z. Hareven on behalf of the Germiston Zionist Society.

On this occasion a warm tribute was paid to Mr. N. Segal, as an ardent Zionist and Jew devoted to matters of Hebrew education, by Mr. B. Cohen, Rev. Wyscheik and Mr. Z. Hareven. A collection for the Jewish National Fund realised £3.

A MOCK CONGRESS IN JOHANNESBURG.

Preparations are proceeding for the Mock Congress which is being arranged by the Nordau Club for Wednesday evening, August 30th, at the Jewish Guild, Johannesburg. Tickets, which are priced at two shillings, are obtainable from the office of the Club, 40 New Kempsey Building, or at the Jewish Guild office. The function promises to be both instructive and amusing, and it is confidently expected that previous Mock Congress successes will be repeated. One-half of the proceeds of the function will be devoted to the South African Fund for German Jewry.
