MISS ETTYE ROSE.

Miss Etye Rose, who will be remembered as a clever, amateur performer in Johannesburg, has returned after a three years' stay in London, where she completed her studies in pianoforte, elocution and dramatic art.

Miss Rose has opened a studio at Lorna Court, Twist Street, and is teaching the above three subjects. She is also organising a children's percussion band class. Here children are taught at an early age to play toy instruments. This helps them, later, more easily to learn the piano. The instruments consist of drums, cymbals, tambourines, etc., and the lessons are keenly enjoyed by the young pupils.
