SINGER'S
make sewing easy!

Not only are Singer Sewing Machines designed to perform their duties in an efficient, speedy, economical manner, but Singer Shops are staffed with competent assistants who will readily assist you with your sewing problems and advise you on the multiple uses of the machine you buy.

There is practically no limit to the things you can make on a Singer, because many clever attachments are available with these wonderful machines—attachments which enable you to make the most marvellous and dainty things for yourself and your home.

All Singer Shops you will find skilled people to make any adjustments or replacements that may be necessary to the smoother working of your machine, and to effect repairs should parts become worn or damaged in use. Singer offers you the attraction of easy, pleasurable sewing plus up-to-date servicing methods. Why not buy a Singer? There is a model to suit you at a price you can afford to pay, and you will quickly realise that a Singer Sewing Machine saves more than its own cost in next to no time. See Singer in the Telephone Directory, or write to P.O. Box 118, Cape Town.

DUNSKY—ESAKOV.

The wedding of Minnie Dunskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dunskey, of Germiston, to Zvi, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. A. Esakov, of Tel-Aviv, was solemnised at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue on Sunday evening, the 21st February.

Dr. Shrock officiated and the unterfuhrers were the parents of the bride and the uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. S. Esakov. The best man was Mr. David Dunskey and the maid of honour Miss Hilary Butkovsky. The bridesmaids were the Misses Katie Hack, Polly Salber, Bertha Beemer and Rosie Korb. The groomsmen were Messrs. A. Abrahamson, D. Etkind, J. Stern and B. Wscheik. The pole-holders were Messrs. S. C. Ostrofsky, C. Hirschmann, H. Esakov and A. Woolf.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Selborne Hall, Johannesburg, which was attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends. Mr. A. Goldberg was the Master of Ceremonies and after various toasts had been proposed, a number of presentations were made by Zionist Organisations.

JEWISH GUILD.

The next production of the Jewish Guild Musical Art Society, "The Merry Minstrels," will be produced on Sundays, 7th and 14th, and 21st inst. at 8.15 p.m., at the Jewish Guild Hall. The producer is Mr. Morry M. Blake, well-known to the world of entertainment.

A BALL.

The annual ball of the Randfontein Combined Zionist Societies will be held at the Robinson Hall, Randfontein, on the evening of Saturday, March 30th. Johnny Jacobs' Personal Orchestra will be in attendance. Tickets are procurable from members of the committee.

NEXT SYMPHONY SOCIETY CONCERT.

The next concert of the Johannesburg Symphony Society will take place on Tuesday evening next, the 9th inst., at the Wanderers Hall. The programme will again combine music of great value with general appeal.

Mozart's delightful serenade "Eine kleine Nachtmusik," will open the evening, to be followed by the same composer's concerto in C Minor for piano and orchestra. Mr. Rodriguez Lopez will be the soloist.

The symphony of the evening will be No. 3 in F Major by Johannes Brahms.

"CAMILLE" AT THE METRO

Greta Garbo and Robert Taylor star together in "Camille," which is the current attraction at the Metro Theatre. Greta Garbo has one of the most lovely roles of her career in this beautiful story of the Lady of the Camellias, and a fine supporting cast includes Lionel Barrymore, Elizabeth Allen and Lenore Ulric. A number of interesting news reels, attractive "shorts" and a few musical items by Mr. Archie Parkhouse, all go to make a very entertaining supporting programme.
