

Rabbi Schwartz On Tour

WARM RECEPTION IN MANY CENTRES

On Sunday, 4th April, Rabbi Schwartz visited Klerksdorp where he addressed a large gathering presided over by Mr. J. Rudolf. At the conclusion of Rabbi Schwartz's address a decision was taken to reorganise the Zionist Society and it was agreed that a general meeting be called for the purpose in the near future. A committee consisting of the following gentlemen was elected to undertake arrangements for the convening of the meeting and the reorganisation of the Society; Dr. Kaufman, Messrs. P. Borer, M. Meyerowitz and J. Rudolf.

VREDEFORT.

Rabbi Schwartz was accorded an extremely warm welcome by the community which assembled in full force at the residence of Dr. P. Braude who presided over the gathering. Rabbi Schwartz delivered a stirring address on the present Jewish situation. The thanks of the audience were voiced by the Chairman.

On the suggestion of Mr. Orkin it was decided that the local community organise themselves into a Zionist Society, and a committee was elected with Dr. Braude as Chairman and Mrs. Yudelman as Secretary.

Concert in Aid of Ort-Oze

IN spite of inclement weather, the Plaza Theatre was well filled on Sunday night, the 11th inst., when a concert was held in aid of Ort-Oze funds. An interesting programme was well received by an appreciative audience.

Outstanding amongst the performers were Jose Rodriguez-Lopez, who played Beethoven's Sonata Pathetique (C. Minor), and Bram Verhoef, who played Kol Nidrei and Beethoven's Rondino.

Jacob Waisitz impressed the audience with his fine rendering of Yiddish recitations, and Louis Sachs was well applauded for his songs. The Melodians were, as usual, well received. Louis Alter's Mandolin Orchestra played selections and Madame Anny Lambrechts rendered songs by Schubert. Peggy Philip rendered popular numbers. M.

"Synagogen Gemeinde Ez-Chayim"

A number of German-Jewish immigrants to South Africa have formed in Johannesburg a religious organisation, "Synagogen Gemeinde Ez-Chayim." The object of this group is to provide a congenial religious environment for German-Jewish refugees locally who have not yet had the time to become assimilated into the general Jewish community. The new organisation does not aim at any separatism, but intends to care for the spiritual welfare of the newcomers until the time when they will easily be able to enter existing organisations. Mr. Felix M. Rosenthal is chairman of the new body. Services are held every Friday evening and religious and Hebrew lessons are shortly to be organised.
