Johannesburg Herzlia

An interesting programme of cultural and social functions for the coming weeks has been arranged by the above society, and all interested are invited to attend these functions. On Thursday evening, the 29th inst., Mr. S. N. Herman will deliver a lecture on "We Zionists," at 158 Francis Street, Observatory. On Sunday, 2nd May, at 2.30 p.m., a tennis afternoon will be held at 29 St. Andrew's Road, Houghton, and on the following Wednesday (5th May), the society is organising a hike. All those desirous of attending should meet at the Yeoville reservoir, corner Kenmere Road and Harley Street at 8 a.m. sharp.

On Wednesday, 18th May, Mr. L. A. Pincus will deliver a lecture on "The Legal Aspects of the Mandate." The venue will be 36 Harley Street, Yeoville.

The second annual ball of the Herzlia will be held at the Langham Hotel on Wednesday, the 2nd June. Tickets are obtainable from the secretaries or any member of the committee.

"GIVE ME YOUR HEART" AT THE COLOSSEUM.

The current film at the Colosseum Theatre is called "Give Me Your Heart." Kay Francis and Roland Young have the stellar roles, ably supported by George Brent. This is a love story with an unexpected and amusing denouement. Charles Manning and the Colosseum Orchestra are continuing their interesting programmes of extracts from the various operas.

CURRENT ATTRACTION AT THE PLAZA.

The present attraction at the Plaza Theatre is a spy drama, "The Great Impersonation," starring Edmund Lowe and Valerie Hobson, supported by a capable cast. This "thriller" has many scenes in the African jungle which should be of special interest to children. Edmund Lowe plays a duel role of a cruel German and that of a meek English gentleman. Max Bruce again delights the audience with his organlude.
