Book-Tea and Dance.

On Saturday evening a Book-Tea and Dance was held at the Belgrave Hotel, Muizenberg, in aid of the Flower Stall at the forthcoming Sale of Work. It was excellently arranged by Mesdames Herbstein and Movsovic and their little band of assistants. Much fun was occasioned by the guessing of the books, which acted as a form of general introduction. Prizes were won by Miss Jocum for the largest number of correct guesses and Mr. Abromowitz for the best representation. Mr. Fine won the booby prize. During the evening, between dances, Miss Faivish recited and a humorous interlude was provided by Messrs. Emdin and Edwards. Thanks are due to Mr. and Mrs. Emdin, who so kindly lent the hotel and helped to make the evening a financial as well as a social success.

Maccabean Guild Dance.

On Thursday evening last a very successful Cabaret Dance took place in the Zionist Hall under the auspices of the Maccabean Guild. Everything helped to make the dance a thoroughly enjoyable one. The music provided by Miss Disner's Orchestra was excellent. There were charming interludes by Miss Sadie Marks and also by pupils of Miss Pearl Lazarus. And a humorous turn by Messrs. Perl and B. Garfinkel was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Horwitz, the President, thanked all those present for coming and the artistes for performing. A very pleasant evening, the enjoyment of which was enhanced by an excellent "spread," was concluded at midnight in the usual manner.

"Library" Concert.

The concert in the Zionist Hall on Sunday evening, April 19th, in aid of the Zionist Hall Library, was well attended. The programme provided was a very attractive one and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

The concert opened with a well-rendered pianoforte solo by Mr. M. S. Friedman. There were songs by Miss E. Heller and Messrs. A. Harte and M. Kavarsky. All the performers were in good form and their renderings of various songs were greatly enjoyed. The dance items, attractive as usual, were performed excellently by the pupils of the Miriam and Elviera Kirsch School of Dancing. Popular items on the programme were the recitations of Miss Bebe Kahn and Mr. N. Losmon. An address was given by Dr. C. Resnekov dealing with Jewish Libraries generally and the Zionist Hall Library in particular. He enlarged on the value and the need of the Library and hoped that the people present would respond to the appeal as generously as they always do.

The result of the silver collection brought in quite a considerable amount, which will prove most useful.
