Interdict Against Grey Shirt Leader.

YESTERDAY'S COURT PROCEEDINGS.

(By Telegraph).

Further to the interdict of von Moltke, leader of the Grey Shirts in the Eastern Province (reported in our issue last week) from printing and publishing certain documents alleged to have been stolen from the Western Road Synagogue, Port Elizabeth, an offer was made by von Moltke in the Grahamstown Court yesterday in his replying affidavit, to consent to the interdict standing as it is. Thereupon the plaintiff, Rev. Levy, obtained by consent the confirmation of the order of the Court. An action for defamation is to be commenced immediately.

In replying to the affidavit, Mr. Inch, another Eastern Province leader of the Grey Shirts, states that he entered the Western Road Synagogue on March 24th through a fanlight, and found the alleged documents.

Steps have been taken to have criminal proceedings instituted against all publishers of the alleged stolen documents.

THE PLAZA.

"Moonlight and Melody."

"Moonlight and Melody" is a gay musical comedy which opens at the Plaza on Monday.

Fifty of New York's most beautiful girls chosen by America's leading illustrators, a splendid cast headed by Leo Carrillo, Mary Brian, Roger Pryor, Herbert Rawlinson, Alexander Gray, Jack Denny, Lillian Miles, Bernice Claire, The Four Eton Boys, and a dozen others, jolly, tinkling new songs from America's leading tunesmiths, dances by Bobby Connolly, and a sumptuous production make a wonderful evening's entertainment.

THE ROYAL.

"Queen Christina."

So much has been written and said about Garbo's return to the screen that further comment would seem superfluous. Every newspaper and periodical of note in Europe and America has paid glowing tribute to the famous star and her work in "Queen Christina." At the Empire Theatre, London, it was found necessary to depart from the strict policy of a weekly change of programme to hold the picture over for three record breaking weeks. Such was the case in every theatre in which the film has been shown.

Zionist Conversazione.

ZIONIST HALL, HOPE ST., CAPE TOWN.

Speaker: Adv. H. SNITCHER.

Subject: "Zionism at the Crossroads."

ALL WELCOME.

Capetown Orchestra Activities.

At to-morrow evening's popular concert in the City Hall, Helen Deacon, the popular coloratura soprano will make a farewell appearance before leaving on an extended holiday overseas. Her songs will include "Romeo and Juliet" (Gounod). Orchestral items will include the March "The Passing Regiment" (Strauss), Madrigale (Simonetti), first performances of a Cuban Serenade (Midgley) Schubert-Fantasia (Foulds), Suite of Four Characteristic Pieces (Clutsam) and "The Swing of the Kilt" (Ewing).

On Sunday evening Mrs. Gladys Hugo will appear with the Orchestra when she will sing an aria from "Il Trovatore" and an aria from "La Traviata." Mrs. Hugo is shortly leaving on a holiday overseas.

The Symphony for next Thursday is the Mozart in D. The Suite from the Fire Bird (Stravinsky) and the Dances from the Three Cornered Hat (De Falla) completes this programme.

Special mention should be made of the Varsity Rag Concert to be given in the City Hall on Saturday, May 12th, in aid of the Hospitals. The programme is not for publication as the details will only be available on the evening, but a magnificent and original entertainment is assured. Booking has opened at Darter's and intending patrons are advised to be early as the plan is booking rapidly.
