Capetown Orchestra Activities.

A magnificent variety programme will be presented at the City Hall to-morrow evening by the Cape Town Orchestra. Myrtle Kingsley and Geoff Hastings will make their first appearance in Cape Town. Miss Kingsley is a soprano and comedienne, and Geoff Hastings is a comedian and character artist, and they will present some interesting items. The Jae Trio comprising Jenny Moffatt, Augustus Tavares and Elenor Bischoff will also make their first appearance in music and song. Valerie Peters will dance a Scotch number, Mrs. Peggy Jackson will sing popular songs, Scratcher Ross will present a new number entitled "The Perfect Broadcast," the conjurers will be Philip Stohr and Philip Hughes, and numerous other interesting numbers.

On Sunday evening another excellent programme will be presented in the City Hall at 8.30 p.m. The singer will be Mrs. Lochner Slabbert, the conductor of the Paarl Choral Society, and Mr. M. Mindlin will play a violin solo. Mr. Granville Britton will play the Kol Nidrei for cello and orchestra. Popular orchestral items will be a feature of the programme.

The symphony for next Thursday will be the Schubert's C Major, by special request.

THE MAJESTIC.

On Monday and Tuesday the Majestic will show the great Oriental drama entitled "The Battle of Desire." This is full of thrills and one of the scenes shows a giant battleship turning turtle. On Wednesday and Thursday Constance Bennett appears in "Our Betters." "Ernest" in "Our Betters" is the world's funniest character actor.

"Malaya with the lid off" might easily describe "Bring 'Em Back Alive." It is the greatest jungle thriller ever produced and amazing scenes of wild animal life in the Malayan jungle make the spectator catch his breath.

THE ROYAL.

"The Masquerader.

The thrills and the heart-throbs of the famous stage melodrama are brilliantly revised by Colman in a smooth and polished production by Samuel Goldwyn. Howard Estabrook and Moss Hart adapted the screen play from John Hunter Booth's dramatisation of the Catherine Cecil Thurston novel.

Playing with Colman in the dual roles are the patrician Elissa Landi and the dark, stately beauty Juliette Compton, the one as wife, the other as mistress.

The story is one of the most interesting and most intriguing of modern legends.
