

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA

The J.N.F. Pesach Concert.

The Zionist Hall was filled to capacity on Sunday night when the Pesach concert in aid of the Jewish National Fund took place. The programme was an outstanding one from every point of view and was very much appreciated by the large audience.

The first part consisted of the following items each of which met with a great deal of applause: piano solo (Miss Rose Kessel), song (Mr. Harry Bloom), Biblical reading (Miss Hannah Oblowitz); song—"Hebrew Melodies" (Miss Lily Blumenthal) with violin obbligato by Mr. Ch. Kreitzer.

After a short interval, the well-known play by Miles Malleon, "Michael" (based on Tolstoy's "What Men Live By") was staged. The beauty and simplicity of this play in three scenes was most effectively conveyed while the moral which it is intended to point left a deep impression. The production was in the capable hands of Mr. Leon Burman and the cast consisted of the following: Misses M. Gorfinkel, A. Gell, H. Schwartz, L. Jaffe, and Messrs. N. Jacobsen, N. Kaye, M. Lazarow. The two children were Zea Lurie and Ethel Rosenzweig.

The climax of the programme was the twelve tableaux based on the Hagadah Shel Pesach, produced by Miss Nancy Watson-Morris, Mr. Leon Burman and Dr. H. W. Altschul.

Each tableau was a finished and beautiful work of art and evoked round upon round of applause. The lighting effects and the general setting were most artistic and praise is due to each one of the numerous participants for their collaboration in an undoubtedly difficult task. Before each tableau Dr. J. Mibashan gave an introduction in Hebrew and Mr. C. K. Friedlander in English.

During the second interval Dr. H. W. Altschul proposed a vote of thanks to the artists and to all those who had helped to make the concert the great success it proved.

Seder Nights at the Orphanage.

Seder evenings at the Cape Jewish Orphanage are essentially gala nights for our Orphanage children. The committee recognise that these Pesach gatherings should remain pleasant memories for all time in the plastic minds of the little ones and everything possible is done to emphasise the Jewishness and family-gathering feeling of these annual festivities.

Many kind country folk and not a few of our local Orphanage friends add to their own Pesach happiness by sending gifts of poultry, nuts and fruits, etc., so that at least on these evenings the festive board in the Home, owing to these generous gifts, compares very favourably with similar Seder celebrations in the best types of Jewish homes.

Members of the committee and other prominent Jewish well-wishers visited the children during and after Seder and assisted by their own gifts and cheerful association with the children both past and present, to make the evenings bright and happy.

All past inmates, single and married, had been invited to these annual reunions and most of them availed themselves of the opportunity to spend an evening in their old Home. Messrs. Emdin Bros. kindly lent a number of additional tables, chairs, etc., and although the dining hall was somewhat crowded, the Principal, Mr. Beresinsky, who conducted the full Seder services with all the beautiful ancient ritual and ceremonial, presided over a remarkably happy gathering. The decorations were beautifully arranged by the Matron, Mrs. Beresinsky, and her assistants and many of the senior girls ably waited on the children and guests both during the Seder and at supper.

Many kind folk visited the Home during the evenings and thus added the personal contact touch that distinguishes our Orphanage from similar places and makes of it a real Home rather than an institution.

Among the visitors we noted:—

The Mayor and Mayoress, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gradner and family, Adv. M. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. I. Ochberg and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Crasnow, Mr. and Mrs. H. Allschwang, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinreich, Mr. M. Pevsner, Mr. and Mrs. Davidowitz, of Muizenberg, Mr. J. Kadish, Mr. J. Zadik, Miss Berliner, Dr. and Mrs. Mibashan, etc.

Hithadrut Ivrit (Hebrew Circle).

A Pesach social was held at the Zionist Hall on Monday night. Mr. J. Gitlin was in the chair.

Dr. J. Mibashan gave a short lecture on the significance of Pesach, and showed how it was of the greatest importance both from a religious and a national point of view. There was nothing that could take the place of the Seder in Jewish life and throughout the ages it had been one of the strongest links uniting the Jewish people. Pesach was a beautiful festival, and appealed to writers and poets. To-day religious feeling, said Dr. Mibashan, was on the wane, and it was only in Palestine in years to come that Pesach would continue to have the great value it has always had for the Jewish people.

The following contributed to the programme: Miss Kessel and Messrs. Katzin, Losman, Lifshitz and Ladin.

The Chairman announced that the Congress of the Brit Ivrit Olamit was shortly to take place in Palestine and proposed Mrs. Gordon, Miss M. Gitlin and Mr. Lehrman as delegates. This was unanimously agreed to.

It was decided that the proceeds of the evening be sent as a contribution to the Congress.

The evening closed with the singing of Hatikvah.

Hebrew Kindergartens Pesach Chagigah.

There was a joyous atmosphere at the Zionist Hall on the Tuesday before Pesach when the tiny tots of the Bnoth Zion Kindergartens gathered together to celebrate the coming of Pesach, the Yomtov most beloved by children, "Chag Choviv" as they call it.

First they sang their joy at the coming of Pesach, telling of the new clothes they would get, and the lovely dishes they would eat, and the happy games they would play with the nuts. They also showed how the grapes had been picked so as to make wine for the Seder.

Then they acted the ever-new story of the finding of Moses. They were all there, the motherly Jochabed, the watchful Miriam, Pharaoh's officer, a stately Princess with her beautiful attendant, even a very realistic River Nile assisted in reliving that famous and historic incident.

Then the "Bnei Israel" left Eretz Mizraim with an energetic Moses leading the way.

Finally they had a Seder.

The memory of these tiny little one lighting the Yomtov candles, making Kiddush singing "Mah Nishtanah," and singing to Elijah Hanavi, is something that those parents and friends who had gathered there to share with the children in the "Chagiga" will always cherish.

Those children who grow up in the Kindergartens will never ask the question that the Rosh asks, because the environment of the Kindergarten makes them Chachamim.

The thanks of the parents and the committee are due to the teachers, Mrs. Mibashan at Monteno Road, and Miss Reading at the Zionist Hall, and their assistants for the work they are doing in leading our children in the paths we wish them to go.
