

In and Around the Peninsula.

Bnoth Zion Association (Claremont Rondebosch Branch).

A social evening was held at the Talmud Toral Hall, Grove Avenue, Claremont, on Sunday night.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of the Chairlady, Mrs. Gorfinkel, Mrs. Berman (Vice-Chairlady) took her place.

The meeting opened with a dance by Miss Zelda Harris. Mrs. Feitleberg (Treasurer) then read a very fine address by Mr. Ussischkin delivered at the Wizo Congress recently held at Tel-Aviv. This was followed by a recitation by Miss Julie Abromovitz which was encored. Mr. Max Bellon also sang two songs which was highly appreciated.

An interval for tea followed.

The Chairlady then introduced the speaker, Mrs. M. Zuckerman, who gave a resume of Zionist activities from their very inception. She remarked she was disappointed with the progress which had been made and urged the audience to strive with all their power for the upbuilding of Palestine.

The Chairlady then welcomed the visitors from Cape Town and Wynberg. Mrs. Feitel-berg moved a vote of thanks to the speaker, after which Mrs. B. Freedman (Hon. Secretary) moved a vote of thanks to the chair.

The meeting concluded with the singing of Hatikvah and the National Anthem.

A card evening held on Thursday, 4th July, at the Prince's Hotel, Newlands, was quite satisfactory.

Four Popular Weddings.

WALT—MORRISON.

The marriage of Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Walt, of Cape Town, to Dr. David Morrison, of Benoni, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. N. Morrison, of Cape Town, took place in the Roeland Street Synagogue on Sunday evening. Cantor S. Kugel assisted by Rev. D. Friedgood, officiated and during the ceremony a solo was sung by Mr. Robinson.

The bridesmaids were Miss Annie Freinkel and Miss Myra Revinson, and the flower girls Miss Eileen Walt and Miss Gloria Jawitz.

Dr. Isidore Walt was the bestman and the poleholders were Mr. David Walt, Mr. Sidney Walt, Mr. V. Resnekov and Mr. Abie Kahn.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Zionist Hall, where the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Walt and Mr. and Mrs. B. Segal (of Benoni) sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The toast of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by Mr. M. Alexander, and the bridegroom suitably replied. The toast of the unterfuhrers was proposed by Councillor A. Z. Berman, and Mr. B. Segal replied.

The names of the bride and bridegroom are to be inscribed in the Golden Book by the unterfuhrers.

GUINSBERG—MAISTER.

The marriage of Beatrice Celine, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myer Guinsberg, of Muizenberg, to David, third son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Maister, of Tamboers Kloof, Cape Town, took place at the Muizenberg Synagogue on Monday afternoon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Guinsberg and Miss Liebah Maister, and the flowergirl Miss Sybil Guinsberg.

Mr. Myer Stakol was the bestman and the poleholders were Messrs. Nathan and Ronald Guinsberg, Sonnie Zabow and Allie Goldblatt.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Rio Grande Hotel. Mr. Baskin proposed the toast of the bride and bridegroom, Adv. Barnett that of the parents, and Adv. G. Gordon of the bridesmaids.

WHEELER—MELZER.

The marriage of Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wheeler, of Cape Town, and Lionel, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Melzer, of Johannesburg, was solemnised at the Gardens Synagogue on Tuesday at twelve noon. Rev. A. P. Bender, assisted by Cantor L. Kirschner, officiated.

The bridesmaid was Miss E. Melzer and the flowergirl little Betty Friedgood.

Mr. Abie Getz was the bestman and the poleholders were Messrs. M. Sacks, H. Melzer, S. Levin and B. Shore.

After the ceremony a luncheon was held at the Zionist Hall. Mr. Phillips proposed the toast of the bride and bridegroom to which the latter suitably responded. Councillor A. Z. Berman proposed the toast of the parents; Mr. and Mrs. Melzer and Mr. Wheeler responded.

The bestman made a number of presentations to the bride and bridegroom on behalf of various institutions in Johannesburg with which the parents of the bridegroom are connected.

BAER—SEELIGMAN.

The wedding of Miss Gretel Baer and Mr. Karl Seeligmann, both German refugees, was solemnised at the Roeland Street Synagogue on Sunday morning, the 14th inst. Mr. and Mrs. P. Policansky and Mr. and Mr. H. Hammerschlag were the Unterfuhrers, and Mr. Friedlander was bestman.

After the ceremony a very enjoyable "At Home" was held at "Shalvah," where the bride has stayed since her arrival in this country. Toasts were proposed by Mr. Maisel, who acted as Chairman of the gathering, and by Mr. H. Hammerschlag, cousin of the bridegroom, also by the best man, by Mr. I. J. Honikman and Mr. C. B. Fox on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. P. Policansky. All those who rose to speak congratulated the young couple on the fact that they had made so many friends during so brief a period.

A letter of congratulation from Rev. Bender was read in which he regretted his inability to be present.

The presence of Miss Berlina, Matron of "Shalvah," was deeply appreciated because, although in poor health, she nevertheless performed her duties as hostess at the wedding of one of her "daughters," and proposed a fitting toast on behalf of the bride.

The bridegroom delighted the audience by his speech in English and gave special thanks, on behalf of his bride and himself, to Mr. and Mrs. Policansky for their great kindness.

Mr. Morris Alexander, too, during a very busy morning felt that he had to put in an appearance at so significant an occasion.

Social and Personal.

Mr. L. Braudo, formerly President of the S.A. Zionist Federation who has been on a visit to South Africa, will arrive in Cape Town next Wednesday and leave on Thursday in the "Giulio Cesare" on his return to Palestine, where he is now resident.

Mrs. Leon Segal, of Cape Town, and Mrs. B. Segal, of Benoni, returned last week in the "Giulio Cesare" from a visit to Palestine and Europe.

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA.

Bnoth Zion Association (Green and Sea Point Branch).

A highly successful card party was given on 13th July at Alphen House, the proceeds to go the establishment of a Hebrew Kindergarten fund.

The hundred people present all spent an enjoyable evening and the nett proceeds will be over £50. During the evening a silver tea service, donated by the American Swiss Watch Co., was put up for competition, Mr. Robinson being the successful ticket-holder.

The energetic committee, and Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, who kindly extended hospitality to the gathering, are to be congratulated on their successful effort on behalf of the Hebrew Kindergarten that is about to be established at Sea Point.

Muizenberg Young Israel Society.

The first social meeting under the new committee was held on the 14th July, at the Talmud Torah Hall, Muizenberg.

Mr. C. Gawronsky showed a film which was greatly enjoyed by the large gathering of young Zionists.

The Chairman, Mr. "Mossie" Sacks, explained the bad financial position of the "Menorah." He urged all members to subscribe to it, pointing out that the "Menorah" is the personal magazine of every junior Zionist, and that it is the duty of every junior Zionist to support it.

After refreshments had been served by the lady members, dancing took place.

The Chairman thanked Mr. Gawronsky for the keen interest taken in the Society.

The meeting concluded with the singing of Hatikvah.
