

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA

Cape Zionist Youth Executive

The fifth Annual Country and Town Parliament arranged by the Country Sub-Committee of the above Executive took place at Paarl on Saturday and Sunday, the 14th and 15th September.

On Saturday night delegates and visitors, who had assembled from all parts of the Western Province, were welcomed in the Talmud Torah Hall by leading members of the Paarl Jewish community. After the addresses a concert was staged by members of the Cape Town and Paarl Habonim and Habonot. The concert was a departure from the usual routine of holding a propaganda meeting on the first night of Parliament, and proved to be most successful. The concert was thoroughly enjoyed by the very large audience present.

At the conclusion of the concert, caucus meetings of the various parties comprising the Parliament on the following day, were held.

On Sunday morning at approximately 10 a.m. Parliament was formally opened by His Excellency the Governor-General (Mr. E. J. Horwitz), with the speech from the Throne. Parliament consisted of three parties, the Majority Party, the Liberal Party, which formed the Opposition, and the Independent Party, and it was assumed that Eretz Israel had obtained autonomy as a seventh British Dominion. Mr. C. K. Friedlander acted as Mr. Speaker, and Mr. R. Sakinofsky as Clerk of the House.

The Prime Minister was Mr. S. M. Levin, while leaders of the Opposition and Independents were Mr. M. Rabinowitz and Mr. A. J. Volks, respectively. Discussion on the speech from the Throne then took place until the House adjourned at 12.30 p.m. for luncheon.

An official luncheon to delegates took place in the Talmud Torah Hall. The convenor of the Country Sub-Committee of the Cape Zionist Youth Executive, Mr. S. L. Gross, acted as chairman at this luncheon. After lunch, Mr. Gross proposed the toast of the King, Eretz Israel and the Jewish Nation. The toast was responded to by the audience. Councillor D. Nelson then delivered a short speech, at the conclusion of which he proposed a toast to the Zionist Youth Movement, which toast was replied to by Mr. C. K. Friedlander. Toasts were also proposed by Mr. S. M. Levin to the Paarl Hebrew Congregation and replied to by the Rev. H. Strelitz; Mr. A. J. Volks to the Governor-General, and replied to by Mr. E. J. Horwitz; Miss F. Gross to the Paarl Ladies' Benevolent Society, and replied to by Mrs. Futeran; and Mr. S. Meyers to the Paarl Junior Zionist Society, and replied to by Mr. J. Levinsohn.

The luncheon concluded with the saying of grace, conducted by Rev. H. Strelitz.

A photograph was then taken of delegates and officials of Parliament.

After this, the House sat again, and the debate on the King's speech continued until 6.30 p.m. when proceedings concluded with a summing up by the Prime Minister and a reply by the leader of the Opposition. A vote on the motion of "no confidence" in the Government was then taken and was carried by a small majority.

Votes of thanks were proposed to Mr. C. K. Friedlander and Mr. Sakinofsky, the Speaker and Clerk of the House, respectively, for the very able manner in which they had discharged their duties. Parliament then went into recess.

In the evening a dance was held by the Paarl Junior Zionist Society in the Talmud Torah Hall in honour of Mr. Speaker and Parliamentarians. Dancing which continued till midnight took place to music provided by Mr. P. Katz and his Orchestra, when a very successful and most enjoyable week-end terminated.

The sports section will commence to function from 1st October, and with the help of every Junior Zionist this section can be made a success. It will be divided into three sections, namely, athletics, swimming and tennis. Further information can be had from the Secretary, Cape Zionist Youth Executive, 85, Plein Street, or from the Sports Convenor, P.O. Box 1588.

The swimming baths are now available on Mondays at Long Street Baths from 5.15 to 6.30, and at Woodstock Baths on Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. to affiliated members.
