

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA

South Peninsula Zionist Society.

Dr. Felix Gross delivered an address at a Succoth evening on Tuesday night. The subject was "Four Jews and I," and the lecturer described interviews he had obtained with four noteworthy Jews within one week in Berlin, namely: Lincoln Treibish, Charlie Chaplin, Yehudi Menuhin and Professor Einstein. In his speech the speaker comprehensively outlined the life of Lincoln Treibish from a Jewish Rabbi to an English High Church parson, thence to a member of Parliament, financier, outlaw, Minister of Propaganda in Germany, propagandist in Russia, China, Afghanistan and Tibet and finally a Buddhist monk. He similarly traced the lives of the other three personages, gave his personal philosophy of them and their abilities and eventually concluding with a description of how he arranged for Yehudi Menuhin and Prof. Einstein to play a violin duet together.

Mr. Davidowitz was in the chair. Mr. Lehrman gave a short address on his impressions of Palestine. Violin solos were rendered by Mr. Libick accompanied by Mr. Lewis. Refreshments were served after which Mr. Aronson moved a vote of thanks on behalf of the seniors and Mr. Sacks, Chairman of the Young Israel Society, on behalf of the youth.

Green and Sea Point Jewish Guild.

A meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Rose on Thursday, 10th October. Mr. J. Hanson was in the chair and Mr. C. Lubinsky read the news-sheet.

The speaker of the evening was Mrs. A. Lieberman, whose very interesting lecture was on "Personal Zionism."

The annual dance takes place at Arthur's Seat Hotel, Sea Point, on Saturday, October 26th, and promises to come up to the standard set last year. Something really original and novel in the way of decorative schemes is being arranged and the Kirsch Studio of Dancing are providing interludes to fit in with the atmosphere.

Cape Town Herzlia.

The Cape Town Herzlia, Cape Town's senior youth society, which has had a certain reputation in the past for its cultural activities and for the ardour of its members, has embarked upon an ambitious and multifarious programme for the widening of its fields of operation, and for the increase and education—in matters Jewish—of its membership.

Lectures by prominent Jewish thinkers and literateurs in the Peninsula have been delivered and are being delivered at regular intervals following a definite pattern. Subsidiary organisations—Circles—have been formed and are being stimulated, directing the attention of groups, their participants, towards particular aspects of Zionism and Jewry. These circles, which respectively are devoted to Jewish National Fund work; the study and instillation of Jewish history, sufficiently modern as to be relevant to the present situation; the elementary principles of Zionism; and to Jewish drama are in the capable hands of Miss Rachman, Mr. Kesler, Mr F. Charlaff and Miss Joffe jointly, and Mr. M. Lazarow. In short the society is striving to remedy the defect from which so many societies suffer—lack of information and material knowledge.

All who are desirous of attending its meetings—and they are welcome—should communicate with the Secretary, "Westfield," Schoonder Street, Cape Town.

A surprise party dance is being held on Sunday night, 20th October. All are welcome and members of Peninsula societies are particularly invited to attend. Meeting place: Harrison's, 18, Strand Street, Cape Town, at 8 p.m. An enjoyable evening is promised.

Bnoth Zion Association (Wynberg Kenilworth Branch).

A highly successful meeting was held at the Wynberg Hotel on Tuesday evening, 6th October. Mrs. M. D. Immerman presided.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed and it was announced that a very successful dance had been organised by the Branch in aid of the National Fund which realised £45 4s. 8d. Special thanks were due to Mrs. B. Matz for having so ably conveyed the dance.

Miss Ray Matz recited and Dr. Ch. Resnekov addressed the meeting on "Some Thoughts about Zionism and Jewish Culture in South Africa."

After tea a lively discussion took place and Mr. B. Matz proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker for a very interesting address.

Jewish National Fund.

The Hon. Treasurer acknowledges with many thanks receipt of the amount of £107 16s. 4d. from the Central Committee of the Bnoth Zion Association, being proceeds of functions arranged by the Branches.

Bnoth Zion Association and Cultural Circle (Woodstock).

A Succoth social was given on Sunday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ruskin, Milner Road. There was a good attendance over whom Mr. Basker presided.

Musical items were rendered by Mr. Ruskin, violin solos; Miss Rae Kaplan, recitations; Mrs. Munitz, songs. These were much appreciated by the audience; Rev. Kassel gave a most entertaining reading in Yiddish and a number of songs.

Mrs. A. Lieberman addressed the gathering on "the Jew and His Leisure—a National Problem." She observed that the Jews of to-day was very often more happy at his work than at play. Among the Jews of a generation or two ago learning was regarded as an equipment for leisure, but not so to-day. When the Englishman retired from business he went on to the bowling green. The Jew never retired; if he did, he would be unhappy. The synagogue was obviously no longer the central place where the Jew was ready to spend most of his leisure.

The Zionist movement could now lay claim upon the Jew's free time, and it was obvious that Zion was dearest to those Jews who gave their leisure to it. Jewry to-day was in need for a renewed life-force. It was here that the Zionist organisation could
