

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA

Hebrew Kindergartens Concert.

Anyone who has been to a Hebrew Kindergarten concert in Cape Town will look forward to the concert to be given by the children of the Molteno Road and Zionist Hall Kindergartens on Sunday, 3rd November, at 10 a.m., at the Zionist Hall. The kiddies have been practising very hard and this concert promises to eclipse all previous ones. The value of the work done by the Kindergartens in laying the foundation of a sound Hebrew education, will be demonstrated and a very pleasant morning is assured.

Bnoth Zion Association (Gardens Branch).

An "At Home" was held at the residence of Mrs. D. Charlaff, Rugley Road, on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ch. Maissel was in the chair. Adv. M. Oblowitz spoke on the work of the Bnoth Zion Association, its relation to women's Zionist work, and to Zionism as a whole. Her address was very much appreciated. Mrs. D. Charlaff reported on the progress of the cultural group under her leadership. Mrs. Shannon read an extract from the "Plough-woman." Mrs. E. Charlaff sang. Mrs. Ch. Cohen gave the news service. Mrs. M. Berelowitz passed a vote of thanks to the speakers and to the hostess.

Zionist Socialist Party.

The next Open Forum will take place at the Zionist Hall on Tuesday, 5th November, at 8.15 p.m. Adv. H. Snitcher will speak on "Socialism, Fascism and War."

The programme includes musical items and a news service.

Oneg Shabbos.

A "Melaveh Malka" social was held at the Zionist Hall on Saturday night. Dr. S. E. Kark was in the chair and welcomed those present. The idea of "Melaveh Malka," he said, was a beautiful one and expressed the Jews' love of the Sabbath, which had kept them together as a people for so many centuries.

Mrs. S. Gordon gave a short talk on the Oneg Shabbos and said that it was different from other societies in that instead of making demands on its members it only wanted to give them spiritual joy and satisfaction. The Oneg Shabbos in Eretz Israel was due to the inspiration of Bialik, who had raised it to a very high level. She appealed to all to attend the Oneg Shabbos here.

An excellent musical programme was carried out, to which the following contributed: Miss F. Rogoff (pianoforte solo), Mrs. Lurie (songs), Mr. Canin (violin solo), Cantor Konwiser (songs), Mr. Losman (recitation), Miss Cohen (songs), Miss Linde (cello solo), Mr. Natas (humorous reading), Mr. Blum (songs). Miss Kessel acted as accompanist.

Green and Sea Point Jewish Guild. Dance.

A very enjoyable dance was held at Arthur's Seat Hotel, Sea Point, in aid of the Communal Hall Building Fund.

The hall was artistically decorated with Chinese lanterns and streamers, and to add to the general scheme of decorations, the members of the Rio Orchestra, who supplied the music, wore Chinese caps. Members of the Committee did a brisk trade in the sale of Chinese caps and little fans.

The organisers are to be congratulated on the success of this dance from which the Fund should benefit considerably.

Cape Town Herzlia.

Dr. F. Gross will deliver an address on Sunday, 3rd inst., at 8.15 p.m. on "Heinrich Heine—the man, the Jew, the poet." All welcome.

Cape Jewish Aged Home.

The Hon. Treasurer of the Cape Jewish Aged Home gratefully acknowledges the sum of £100 towards the funds of the Institution from the family of the late Mrs. Ida Rothkugel. He also desires to acknowledge the sum of £200 from the estate of the late Mrs. Helena Siew, of Kimberley.

Hebrew Teachers' Association.

A meeting will be held on Sunday, 3rd November, at 4 o'clock, in the Talmud Torah Hall.

The new syllabus, which has been issued by the Jewish Board of Education (Cape Committee), will be reviewed and discussed, and the question of introducing National Fund activities in our schools will be considered.

Members and friends are cordially invited.

Dorshei Zion Association.

A mass meeting to commemorate the Eighteenth Anniversary of the Balfour Declaration will be held in the Zionist Hall, on Sunday, November 3rd, at 8.15 p.m.

Rev. A. P. Bender, Mr. B. L. Rubik and Adv. M. S. Comay will speak. Dr. C. Resnekov will be in the chair.

A musical programme has been arranged.

Social and Personal.

Dr. I. Steinberg, the well-known Yiddish writer and editor of "Dos Freie Wort," is due to arrive from London in the "Edinburgh Castle" on Monday. He is visiting South Africa in the interests of the Vilna Cultural Institution.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. A. Schauder, of Port Elizabeth, on his appointment as a Justice of the Peace. Mr. Schauder, whose communal activities over a period of thirty-five years are well known, has also won the esteem of the non-Jewish citizens of Port Elizabeth through his many years of unselfish work on the City Council and other civic bodies. The Council recently re-appointed Mr. Schauder as its representative on the School Board for a period of three years.

Mr. P. Machanik, of Pretoria, returned in the "Carnarvon Castle" on Monday from a tour of Great Britain, the United States and Sweden, where he made a study of telephonic communication, telegraphic systems and broadcasting development, having been awarded a grant from the Carnegie Corporation Fund for that purpose.

The engagement is announced of Bess, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Isaac Danker, of York Road, Muizenberg, to Mr. Joseph Talberg, of 22, Belmont Avenue, Oranjezicht.

Dr. Herzl Levitt, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Levitt, of George, who recently qualified at Guy's Hospital, London, will arrive on Monday in the "Edinburgh Castle."

Cable advice has been received that Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Suchedowitz, of "Koln," Garfield Road, Oranjezicht, has passed the final medical examination at St. Mary's Hospital, London.
