The May Fair.

AN APPEAL TO THE COMMUNITY.

It is with confidence, that we, as representing our respective Associations make an appeal to the public spirit of the community for the united effort which culminates next week in the May Fair.

It is unnecessary for us to dilate at this stage upon the parts played in the communal life by the Cape Jewish Orphanage and the Dorshei Zion Association. It is fitting that the Silver Jubilee of the Orphanage should be celebrated by this endeavour to safeguard for the future the Zionist Hall which caters for all sections of the community and the home of those who have been bereft of their parents.

We feel sure that the self-sacrificing labours of the large body of willing helpers will reap their reward with support accorded to the May Fair.

The gracious presence of Her Excellency the Countess of Clarendon, who is opening the Fair on Wednesday, and of Mrs. J. H. Conradie, who performs the opening ceremony on Thursday, shows that they realise fully the value of the objects of the May Fair.

J. HERBSTEIN, Acting President,

J. M. WEINREICH, President,

The President, in opening the proceedings, referred to the great loss to Zionism of that noble leader Dr. Nahum Sokolow, and as a mark of respect the gathering stood in silence.
