

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA

Broth Zion Association.

A very interesting and enjoyable "At Home" was held by the Tamboers Kloof Branch on Tuesday night at the residence of Mrs. I. B. Smith, 17, Warren Street.

Mrs. S. N. Kantey presided and expressed her appreciation at the large gathering in spite of the unfavourable weather. She referred briefly to the success of the recent Keren Hayesod Campaign and the excellent work done by the ladies. Mrs. I. Kleinman then read the news-sheet.

Adv. M. S. Comay delivered a striking address on "The Background to the Jewish Question," and held from beginning to end the undivided attention of his audience. He dwelt at length on the external and internal problem of the Jews, tracing back in history and showing the persecution of the Jews throughout the centuries. During the "emancipation period" when the Jews began to assimilate, persecution had again returned, thereby proving to the Jew the futility of assimilation. Adv. Comay took our giant leader in Jewish history, Theodor Herzl, as an example of a man who aimed at solving the external problem, whilst Achad Ha'am the internal problem.

After the tea interval Miss Hannah Oblovitz gave several delightful recitations. Mrs. R. Friedlander then proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker, artist and hostess.

May Fair Social Evening.

A social evening for the stall convenors and assistants of the May Fair will be held in the Zionist Hall on Thursday, August 6th. Mesdames Gradner and Stodel will act as hostesses.
