Twenty-first Birthday of Third Cape Town Jewish Girl Guide Company.

June 12th was a red-letter day in the history of the Third Cape Town Jewish Girl Guide Company, as it was the occasion of their "Coming of Age."

During the whole of the previous week the nineteen Guides, assisted by Vice-Captain and Captain, distributed eggs, fruit, old clothes, vegetables, groceries and books to twenty-one needy orphanages, homes and institutions in and around Cape Town.

On Saturday afternoon, 12th June, a special Synagogue Parade was attended by the Company.

Birthday Week concluded on Saturday night with a large Birthday Celebration Party. The District Commissioner and District Captain, as well as a few Cape Town Guiders, were present, and also the majority of ex-Guiders. A good number of ex-guides were also with us. Parents and friends turned up in large numbers to enjoy a delightful evening.

The programme consisted of various items, including an enrolment and a "flying up" ceremony. This was followed by the main item of the evening—a Cavalcade of Guiding during the past twenty-one years, with incidents of particular importance to the Company. Lights were turned out for this item, and each Guide advanced with a large lighted candle, said her few words about the events which took place during that particular year, and proceeded to the platform, where the large birthday cake, complete with trefoil, golden key and the figure "21", stood. Around this cake were placed the twenty-one candles. After this ceremony the cake was cut and wrapped in red paper (Company colour) and distributed to the guests.

After interval Miss Stapleton presented the Inter-Patrol and Individual Cups to the Guides for the half-year and then gave a short talk and congratulated the Company on reaching its "majority."

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA

The Vice-President of the Jewish Girls' Association, through whom the Third Cape Town Company was formed, then presented the Company with a beautiful silver cup for Inter-Patrol competition.

An action song by the Pack followed. This was enthusiastically applauded by the audience.

The Guides next staged a model Guide Meeting, to show all present what is done at Company meetings.

The next item was a Hiking Scene—also done in the dark. This was followed by a Country Dance by the smaller Guides.

A short "thank you" talk was then given by the Captain, who heartily thanked the Commissioner, fellow Guiders, parents and many friends for their kind interest and support. A brother Scout and a close friend of the Company for the past nineteen years, gave a short address in which he appealed for more Guiders.

The Company presented Miss Stapleton with a Union Jack for use in Cape Town District.

This memorable occasion concluded with Taps and God Save The King.

Mischa Elman's Skill.

The great artistry of Mischa Elman who will be heard in recitals in Cape Town on Saturday the 26th June and Tuesday the 29th June, has brought to the front many great compositions which had long lain neglected until he introduced them in his programmes.

The most noteworthy case of this kind is the Tschaiakowsky violin concerto, which was ignored by virtuosi until Elman, with characteristic courage, made it celebrated.

After his beautiful interpretation in Germany, the demand for it became so great that during the following year the artist was requested to play it twenty-five times with leading orchestras.

Mischa Elman has selected a varied programme for his first concert on Saturday the 26th June, and this will include the magnificent Kreutzer Sonata by Beethoven. Another work that calls for demonstration of impeccable virtuosity is Handel's Sonata in E Major which will present an interesting contrast to Beethoven.

Elman's accompanist will be Vladimir Padwa, himself a musician of no mean accomplishments. It is essential that the accompanist for the Kreutzer Sonata be of outstanding ability, because this great composition is tremendous in conception both for the violinist and his accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Mischa Elman, their daughter, Nadia, and their son, Joseph. Mischa Elman is one of the world's greatest violinists. His concerts in the City Hall, Cape Town, will be given on Saturday, June 26th, and Tuesday, June 29th.
