KINDERGARTEN FESTIVAL CONCERT.

One of those delightful festival concerts given by the children of the Bnoth Zion Hebrew Kindergarten at regular intervals was held last Sunday morning in honour of Shevuoth. The spirit of the festival was faithfully introduced, and, dressed as Palestinian farmers and Chalutzim, the children very charmingly sang their spring and harvest songs, and brought their "first fruits" to Jerusalem.

The Torah, too, played its part in this happy festival, and very joyfully the tiny tots sang their praises to God for His gift of the Law, while they carried their beautifully got-up miniature Torahs round the room.

The opportunity was taken during the morning of bidding farewell to Miss Rivka Goldin, the kindergarten mistress, who is being married next week, and who is to take up residence in Johannesburg. A presentation on behalf of the Bnoth Zion Committee and the parents of the pupils was made to her.

Miss Goldin is being replaced by Mrs. J. Mibashan.

JEWISH CHARITY CONCERT.

A very successful concert in aid of the Cape Jewish Board of Guardians was held last Sunday night in the Opera House, which had been kindly lent by the African Consolidated Theatres, Ltd., for the occasion. There was a large gathering present, and a very enjoyable programme was arranged.

All services of the orchestra, stage staff, front of house and printers had been generously donated. Those who contributed to the programme were the orchestra, under Mr. H. Michelson, Molly Hayward's dancing pupils, Miss Edith Richmond, who sang, Mr. Felix de Cola, who gave a pianoforte solo, Miss Vera Kirsch, who danced, Mr. Batchelor-Smith, who sang Miss Joy Brice and Miss Bery! Kay (pupils of Miss Hinda Honikman) who recited, Lewis Morris and his band, Helen Kantorowitz, who sang little Sybil Jacobs, who gave some clever impersonations, Signor Nagel and Senorita Ebbs, tango specialists, Nat Davis, whose item was entitled "Stuff and Nonsense," pupils of Miss Vera Kirsch, who danced, and Watts and Burke, who gave a comedy sketch.

The hon. organiser and house manager was Mr. Harry Weinreich, the hon. musical directors Messrs. H. Michelson and J. Lowndes, the hon. accompanist Mr. Max Miller, and the hon. stage director Mr. Frank White.

ORPHANAGE 21st ANNIVERSARY FETE.

Following a meeting held recently at the residence of Rev. A. P. Bender, it has been decided that 20 per cent. of the net proceeds of the Cape Jewish Orphanage 21st anniversary fete is to be given to the Board of Guardians and 10 per cent. to the Talmud Torah. This arrangement has been made subject to the conditions that the committees of these two institutions actively assist in making the fete a success, and that they continue with any money-raising efforts already organised, but that they make no fresh plans until the fete is over.

In view of the critical position in which the two institutions in question find themselves to-day, the new arrangement has won general favour, and it is expected that as a result a greater effort all round will be made in order to ensure the success of the function.

ADDRESS BY MR. CLOUTS.

"New Objectives for the Zionist Organisation" was the subject of a lecture delivered by Advocate P. M. Clouts at a meeting of the Zionist Revisionist Organisation held recently.

In a world racked by economic and political issues, said Mr. Clouts, the position of Jews was becoming rapidly more and more unstable. The speaker advocated "joint world action" by Jewry. We should aim at obtaining representation and membership on the League of Nations, and obtain for the Jews in Palestine international standing as Jews and not as Palestinians. We should convert our Zionist Organisation into a world Jewish organisation.

Those who participated in the discussion which followed were Mr. van Gelderen, Mr. W. Rubik and Mr. D. Melmed.

LADY CLARENDON VISITS THE ORPHANAGE.

Lady Clarendon, the wife of the Governor-General, accompanied by Lady Evelyn Ward, paid a visit to the Cape Jewish Orphanage last week. The visit was an informal one and Lady Clarendon took the opportunity of becoming acquainted with a number of members of the committee, who were present, and with the workings of the institution. After tea had been served, she inspected the home and expressed very great satisfaction with all she saw.

THE ONEG SHABBOS.

At the Oneg Shabbos last Saturday afternoon, Dr. S. E. Kark delivered a lecture on chapters of the Bible. There was a large gathering present, who listened to Dr. Kark with great interest. Mrs. S. Gordon presided.

THE CONVERSAZIONE.

"The Individual and the Race" was the subject of a lecture delivered by Dr. J. Sachs at the last Zionist conversazione.

The individual of every race, contended Dr. Sachs, was the cumulative result of the history of his race. The Jew differed in this respect as his history had been discontinued. The cultural wealth of a people could be compared to a string of pearls. In the case of the Jewish people the string had snapped and some of the pearls had strayed and been threaded on the strings of other cultures. It was no use claiming them, and other nations could afford to plagiarise us. The only thing for us to do was to come back to our own undisputed possession—our ancient history.

A discussion took part, in which Dr. J. Mibashan, Messrs. S. Futeran, B. Mirvish, B. Padowitz, M. Joffe and M. Rosenblit participated.

Dr. S. E. Kark acted as host and during the course of the evening a violin solo was played by Mr. Eberlin. The Jewish news was read as usual.

COHEN—MILLER.

The marriage took place at the Gardens Synagogue, Capetown, recently, of Miss Ethel Cohen, daughter of Mr. Cohen, of Boksburg, to Mr. Maurice Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Miller, of Ireland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. Kirschner, assisted by the Rev. S. Kibel.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Miss Becky Cohen as maid of honour, and the bridesmaids were Misses Miriam Berk, Ruth Cohen, Rose Gordon and Zena Miller. Mr. James Gordon was the best man, and the canopy bearers were Messrs. Louis Gordon, Louis Grass, Harry Solomon and Solly Smith. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. Max Cohen (brother and sister-in-law of the bride), and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller (uncle and aunt of the bridegroom). After the ceremony a family gathering was held at Mr. Max Cohen's residence, where felicitous speeches were delivered.

GENERAL.

An address on "The Jewish Woman" was delivered last week by Miss Marcia Gitlin at a meeting of the Bnoth Zion Association.

The first public function of the newly formed South Peninsula Jewish Club was held at the Marine Hotel, Muizenberg, last Saturday night, and took the form of a dance. The function was well attended and proved most enjoyable.
