

Mrs. B. Ordman, wife of Dr. Ordman of Germiston has been appointed a member of the Governing Body of the Germiston High School, Mrs. Ordman is the Government nominee.

Rev. M. Konviser, Minister of the Kimberley Hebrew Congregation, conducted the Delville Wood Memorial Service at the Kimberley Cenotaph on Sunday last.

The engagement is announced of Annie, eldest daughter of Mr. E. Yudelman of Capetown, to Sam, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Scher of Wynberg.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ellman (nee Miriam Lekoch) of 27 Innes Avenue, Bloemfontein are being congratulated on the birth of a son on the 16th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Katz, of Houghton Estate, have received cabled advice from their son, Herbert, ophthalmic surgeon, that he has obtained the F.R.C.S. degree, and intends returning home shortly.

Dr. Charles Hurwitz, superintendent of the Northern Free State Hospital, Kroonstad, accompanied by his wife, sailed to-day on the Warwick Castle, en route to England.

Wedcliffe-Simmons.

The marriage of Miss Cecelia Simmons, of Bloemfontein, and Mr. H. Wilfred Wedcliffe, of Johannesburg, took place at the Bloemfontein Synagogue on Sunday afternoon, the 17th inst. Rev. Altshuler (of Bethlehem), Rev. Hadassin (of Bloemfontein), assisted by Rev. Reichenberg, officiated. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Simmons, the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Aserman, the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law. Mr. A. Crystal acted as best man and Mr. J. Simmons as groomsman. The pole-holders were Messrs. M. Pencharz, S. M. Simmons, S. Morris and L. Rothbart.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Ramblers Hall, where a large gathering of relatives and friends assembled. The toast of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by Mr. M. Altshuler, and suitably replied to by the bridegroom. The toast of the bride's parents by Mr. I. H. Haarburger, replied to by the bride's father, Mr. L. I. Simmons; the toast of the bridegroom's mother by Mr. D. Davidson, replied to by Mrs. Aserman, and the toast of the bridesmaids by Mr. M. Pencharz, replied to by Mr. A. Crystal.

A presentation was made by Mr. S. Caplan to the bridegroom of a silver Kiddush Cup on behalf of the H.O.D. Montefiore Lodge of Johannesburg.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Bertram Victor, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Gesundheit, 21, Rosmead Avenue, Capetown, will read Maftir at the Gardens Synagogue, on Saturday, 30th inst., on the occasion of his Barmitzvah. Relatives and friends are cordially invited to the "At Home" to be held on the following day at 3 p.m. No cards.

Mr. Harold G. Friede, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Friede, has arrived in Johannesburg from London. An Old Johannian, Mr. Friede has been five years at Cambridge and in London and was called to Grey's Inn Court last month.

Mrs. I. Hayman, who has been touring in Rhodesia for the past two or three weeks in the interests of the Jewish National Fund, is expected back in Johannesburg this week-end.

Miss Rae Salomon, secretary of the Cherniavsky Concert Bureau will leave to-day for Australia in the Themistocles, to join Mr. Alex Cherniavsky, who is touring Australia with Sybil Thorndyke, and from whom she will take over the tour when he leaves for Canada.

Orden-King.

The marriage took place on Sunday, the 17th inst., at the Berea Synagogue, of Esther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. King, of Johannesburg, to Dr. Joseph Orden, son of Mrs. L. Orden and the late Mr. Orden of Capetown.

The bride was given away by her father. The maid of honour was the sister of the bridegroom, Miss Ann Orden and the bridesmaids were the Misses Miriam and Bertha King.

Mr. and Mrs. M. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. Clingman, were the unterfuhrers, and Mr. Henry Miller acted as best man. The dainty flower-girls were Vivienne Rubin and June Ostrowiak. The pole-holders were Dr. S. Witten, Messrs. Abe Kalwerisky, Louis Kalwerisky and J. Engelman.

A family dinner was held at the bride's parents' residence where Mrs. S. M. King received the guests.

The bride received a handsome silver tea service from the staff of the Doornfontein School.

The numerous friends of Mr. Shlomoh Livni of Palestine, will be pleased to hear that a cable has been received to the effect that he has successfully completed his medical studies in London. Dr. Livni is well known to the Jewish community in Johannesburg as an active Zionist and was at one time Chairman of the Johannesburg Hebrew Speaking Circle. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. M. Stein of 17, Saratoga Avenue, Johannesburg.

The engagement is announced of Hetty, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosenberg of Port Elizabeth, to Harris, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Radowsky of Mowbray, Capetown.

Mr. Jascha Heifetz, the famous violinist, accompanied by Mr. Isidor Achron, his accompanist and pianist, and by Mr. Leo Cherniavsky sailed for Europe on Friday last in the Warwick Castle at the conclusion of his concert tour of the Union.

Mr. Isador Epstein, the well-known pianist, has returned to Johannesburg from Durban, where he adjudicated at the local Eisteddfod in the instrumental section. During his stay, Mr. Epstein played four concertos with the Durban Symphony Orchestra. These concertos were played within a week in four respective concerts and is a record of its kind for South Africa. The playing of Mr. Epstein aroused the greatest enthusiasm on the part of the music-lovers in Durban and full houses were secured at the symphony concerts at which he was the leading artist.

Sanders-Goldberg.

Rabbi W. Hirsch, assisted by Cantor Zwick, officiated on Sunday, the 10th inst., in the Pretoria Synagogue at the marriage of Ethel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Goldberg, and Mr. Barney Sanders, of Oudtshoorn. Mr. Ben Sanders, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and Dr. M. Goldberg, the bride's brother, acted as groomsman. Messrs. Peltz, Segal and Levin and Dr. M. Sless were the canopy-bearers.

The bride, who was given away by her father was attended by Miss Annie Madnitzky, as maid of honour.

At the subsequent reception at the Ritz Cafe the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Goldberg and Mr. and Mrs. D. Sanders (cousins of the bridegroom). Some 300 guests attended and the toasts were proposed by Rabbi Hirsch, Mrs. P. Friedman and Mr. Miller.