ELGIN HOTEL DANCE.

A dance will be held at the Elgin Hotel in aid of the Chalutz Farm on Saturday, March 30th. An enjoyable time is assured to all who will patronise this function.

A Successful Musicale

ON Tuesday evening, the 19th inst., a musicale was held at the Langham Hotel under the auspices of the Sisterhood of the Johannesburg Jewish Reform Congregation. The Mayor and Mayoress (Councillor and Mrs. Maurice Freeman) extended their patronage and attended this function. The title "musicale" for this function was hardly appropriate, as according to the standard of artists and choice of programme, it was a concert of a high order.

The programme commenced with Rubinstein's Trio Op. 15, played by Messrs. J. Idelson, L. Birsen, and R. Goldberg, followed by an air "Non Piu Andrai," by Mozart, sung by Mr. H. Steafel. Mr. R. Goldberg (cellist), gave a fine rendering of Chopin's nocturne. It is to be regretted that this fine artist is rarely heard lately on local concert platforms. The duet from Madame Butterfly was sung by Mesdames Lena Morrison and Anna Donan. The duet was a good attempt, but lacked in unity of nuances.

The second half of the programme commenced with a group of songs by Miss Jean Gluckman, whose artistic delivery delighted the audience. This fine artiste has proved a valuable acquisition in local musical circles.

Mr. L. Birsen brilliantly executed Sarasate's "Jota Navarra," and the programme concluded with vocal quartets by Mesdames Anna Donan, Tilly Weinfeld, and Messrs. H. Steafel, and M. Johnson.

The success of the concert was largely due to Mr. J. Idelson, who not only arranged this beautiful programme, but was also the accompanist of the evening.

A Presentation

A pleasant affair took place at the Johannesburg Public Library on Friday last, when the Librarian, Mr. S. B. Asher, made a presentation on behalf of the library staff to Miss S. M. Baneshik, on the occasion of her forthcoming marriage. Mr. Asher expressed the regret of himself and the staff at Miss Baneshik's leaving, and wished her and her fiancé every happiness.

On Monday afternoon, the ladies of the municipal staff gathered at Stuttaford's Tea Room to present Miss Baneshik with a pewter tea service. The presentation was made by Councillor Mrs. Pemberton, who extended to Miss Baneshik the best wishes of the gathering.
