Johannesburg Women's Mizrachi

Mayfair Branch.—A highly successful social afternoon was recently spent at the residence of Mrs. M. Sadowsky, under the auspices of the Western Suburbs Women's Mizrachi Organisation. Mrs. B. Meyerowitz presided, and before calling upon the speaker, Rabbi Dr. Rabinowitz, asked all present to rise in deep grief at the loss Jewry had sustained at the passing of their beloved leader, philosopher and thinker, Nahum Sokolow.

In his eloquent address, Rabbi Rabinowitz held his audience spellbound with interest. His subject was "The Education and Cultural Problems in the Old and New Yishub in Palestine."

Mrs. Ben voiced the appreciation of those present to the lecturer and Mrs. Silber thanked the hostess for her hospitality.

United Socialist Party

ON Sunday, the 14th inst., the second open forum of the Party took place at the H.O.D. Hall. A large gathering was present. Mr. M. Lazar was in the chair.

Rev. I. Goss delivered an instructive address on Bernard Shaw and spoke on the theory of his life and his relation to education. The lecturer showed himself to be an authority on modern English literature and on Shaw's writings. The second of the series of lectures on Shaw will take place in the near future under the auspices of the above Party.

Mr. Simon rendered several musical items on the mouth organ and concertina, which he performed in a most artistic manner. Great applause greeted the items rendered by the young dancer, Miss Simon, which were deeply appreciated by the audience. The evening concluded with the singing of Hatikvah.

ARLOSOROFF CLUB.

The first public meeting under the auspices of the above club will take place on Sunday, June 28, at the Elgin Hotel. The gathering will be addressed by prominent speakers and suitable musical items will be rendered. All welcome.

NORTHERN DISTRICTS ZIONIST YOUTH SOCIETY.

PLAZA THEATRE ATTRACTIONS

From Monday of next week, the Plaza Theatre's feature film will be "Dangerous," starring Franchot Tone (of "Munity on the Bounty" fame) and Bette Davis, who incidentally won the Gold Medal Star for her performance in this picture. The current attraction at the Plaza is "The Triumph of Sherlock Holmes" a thrilling detective story based on "The Valley of Fear," by the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Arthur Wontner plays the leading role as Mr. Holmes, whose time-honoured remark, "Elementary, my dear Watson," will again be heard. Both supporting programmes are good.

Habonim Activities

Rhodesia.—During the past fortnight Mr. M. Donen, organising-secretary of Habonim, has been in Rhodesia inspecting the movement there. From accounts received, his stay there has been highly successful.

Bulawayo showed a lively interest in Mr. Donen's visit, and he was inundated with requests to speak at the meetings of various societies. Mr. Donen lectured to the W.I.Z.O., the Bulawayo Young Israel Society and the Jewish Guild Literary Circle.

A busy round of Habonim activities was indulged in. Several training meetings were held for officers. A special synagogue service was held for Habonim on the evening of Friday, the 7th inst., and also on Saturday, the 8th. An all-day picnic, held on Sunday, the 9th inst., was particularly successful. Every member of the movement attended the picnic and the Mayor and Mayoress were also present, as well as a number of parents who joined the party in the afternoon.

Mr. Donen left Bulawayo on Thursday for Salisbury. Habonim there had drawn up a full programme for him. The visit of Mr. Donen was very successful.

Moiseiwitsch's Last Concert

Mr. Benno Moiseiwitsch, the pianist, will give his farewell concert in Johannesburg at the Colosseum Theatre next Sunday night. He will present an all-Chopin programme, an event of considerable interest to music lovers, as Mr. Moiseiwitsch has won particular distinction as a Chopin interpreter. His programme will include preludes, nocturnes in C Minor and F Sharp Major, Scherzo in C Sharp Minor, Scherzo in B Minor, "Fantasie Impromptu" and "Berceuse," none of which have appeared in his previous programmes.
