

Sports

Maccabi Football

The Wit. League Team continued their good work by defeating Crittall Hope by 5 goals to 3 goals. This further success has enhanced their position at the top of the League. The team will play Bantjes United at Bantjes ground during the coming week-end at 3.45 p.m.

The following have been selected: J. Furman, S. Rudner, M. Marcus, R. Farber, S. Carrol, A. Treisman, J. Wolff, L. Hershowitz, A. Smith, B. Lipron, M. Smith.

MACCABI UNDER 20.

The under 20 team continued to play a more spirited game but were beaten by a better team, Empire Exhibition, by the odd goal in seven.

The team play Marist Bros. "B" at Observatory next week-end at 2.15 p.m. The following have been selected: H. Slot, J. Schneider, G. Sacks, O. H. Ocken, D. Daleski, B. Beck, L. Gordon, A. Jaffe, R. Gaylis, L. Friedlander, H. Gluckman, I. Firer.

A Great Wrestling Match

On Saturday, the 27th inst., there will be an interesting professional wrestling bout. Jack McLaughlan, the celebrated Canadian wrestler, who has just returned to South Africa, will appear for the first time in Johannesburg against Cyclone Stockton.

An interesting aspect of this match is that the winner is destined to meet Bob (Bullet) Myers. There will be interesting supporting contests and the promotion is under the auspices of the Transvaal National Sporting Club.

Ladies' Hockey

MACCABI vs. JAGGERS.

Maccabi met Jagers on Sunday, 21st inst., at Rangers Ground. The game, although being fairly fast, lacked excitement and thrills. The Maccabi players forced the game throughout and resulted in a win for Maccabi by two goals to nil.

The team was as follows: L. Rafel, R. Hurwitz, I. David, G. Isaacs, O. Millner, A. Gluckman, D. Bailey, S. Hirshowitz, B. Klibansky, M. Smith and T. Friedlander.

Referee, Mr. W. Shapiro.

A.B.C. Symphony Orchestra

Tuesday night's fortnightly concert of the A.B.C. Symphony Orchestra at the Jewish Guild drew an appreciative audience. Mr. Jerry Schulman conducted the orchestra in his usual able form.

Of great interest was the presentation of Glazounov's "Scenes de Ballet" suite in eight movements. The orchestra brought out all the beautiful colour of this typical Russian composition. Another interesting item was the overture "Benvenuto Cellini" by Berlioz, of which an attractive rendering was given. Beethoven's "Eroica" symphony was also rendered in fine style. Altogether an evening of excellently rendered classical music.

PALESTINE ARTS AND CRAFTS.

Mrs. S. Milstein, of the Palestine Arts and Crafts, is prepared to send out samples of these goods all over the Union and to all Zionist Societies at lowest prices. Goods received by every mail. Members of the Jewish community are advised to purchase at this store at 56a Plein Street, Johannesburg.

Where to Stay in Warmbaths

RESIDENCY HOTEL.—Strictly kosher. Satisfaction and comfort assured. For accommodation apply to Rev. M. F. Rootshain, P.O. Box 35, Warmbaths, Transvaal. Phone 34. Open always X042.

United Hebrew Congregation of Johannesburg

The twenty-first annual general meeting of the members of the above congregation will be held on Sunday, 28th inst., at 10 a.m., in the Hebrew High School, opposite the Park Synagogue in Wolmarans Street.

A report of the activities of the past year has been sent out to all members and will be duly submitted to the members at the annual meeting.

Mr. Ephraim Kluk in Palestine A SPECIAL CONSTABLE.

HIS many friends and fellow-Zionists in South Africa will be interested to hear that Mr. Ephraim Kluk, who for some time past has been attached to the Keren Hayesod office in Jerusalem and has been putting in strenuous and valuable work there, is relieving the humdrum of his daily office round by serving at nights as a Special Constable in the Jerusalem Police Force.

In the company of a British policeman he patrols the Jewish quarters every night, and in spite of the occasional distraction of a stray rifle or revolver shot or bomb explosion, is feeling happy in being able to do his bit in the very difficult times the Yishub is now going through.

Charitable Bequests

Under the will of Mr. Bernard Fain, a retired wholesale merchant, who died in Johannesburg on June 6, bequests are made to the charitable institutions as follow:

Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, London, £250; Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Johannesburg, £250; Society for the Abolition of Vivisection, London, £200; Royal Hospital and Home for Incurables, London, £250; Jewish Board of Guardians, London, £200; Jewish Orphanage, Johannesburg, £200.

Mr. Fain left South African estate valued at £18,269. This consisted in the main of mortgage bonds.

A PLEA FOR HEBREW

I AM hoping while I am in South Africa to join in taking such steps as will help in the setting up of an effective body for dealing with the question of Hebrew in this country, and I would call upon all who have the interest of Hebrew at heart to join in this effort. In particular, I would call upon the Jewish youth of this country, the Zionist Youth, the Habonim, Maccabi, etc., to exert every possible pressure upon the Zionist leadership of South Africa, and upon those who stand within the Hebrew movement or can influence the Hebrew movement in this country, in the direction of establishing a really effective Hebrew education for young and old.

South African Zionism has done and is doing great things for the upbuilding of Palestine. It must do equally great things for the upbuilding of a Hebrew generation for whom Palestine shall mean all that it can mean, and who shall be able to contribute to Palestine all that Zionists should contribute.

Result of Essay Competition

"SMALL TOWN GIRL" AT THE METRO

Commencing from to-day, "Small Town Girl"—based on the novel of the same name by Ben Ames Williams—is the attraction at the Metro theatre. Janet Gaynor and Robert Taylor make a romantic team in their first appearance together in this story of a modern Cinderella who marries a brilliant and rich young surgeon, while the latter is under the influence of liquor and does not know what he is doing. A Walt Disney Silly Symphony cartoon is included in an attractive supporting programme.
