

Another Bitter Attack on Jews

NUREMBERG NAZI CONGRESS

THE congress of Nazis at present concluding its sitting in Nuremberg, has witnessed another bitter attack on the Jews.

Attacks have been delivered against other nationals as well, often in such fashion as to call forth consternation in the chancelleries of Europe.

Hitler, for example, went out of his way to make a sneering reference to Mr. Amery, and this passion for personalities was carried still further by the attack of Dr. Goebbels on Mr. Eden, who, it may be remembered, visited Moscow some time ago.

"It can happen," said Dr. Goebbels, "that the representative of a great country during his visit to a new underground railway, or through hearing his National Anthem played at a Bolshevik reception can, without any apparent reason, suddenly throw overboard all his old ideas of Bolshevism."

But these attacks pale into insignificance compared with Dr. Goebbels' attack on the Jews, whom, like all Nazi propagandists, he confuses with the Bolsheviks.

An expurgated edition of the speech, which was delivered before an audience including the diplomats of 40 nations, some of them allies of Russia, was issued later for internal consumption, but many moderate men are now wondering whether after such a speech Russia and Germany can maintain diplomatic relations much longer.

Dr. Goebbels' onslaught on the Jews was not unexpected, as at the opening of the congress it was noted that Herr Streicher, the notorious anti-Semite, was given a place of honour beside the Fuehrer.

Briefly, Dr. Goebbels' thesis was that Bolshevism was pathological criminal madness schemed and propagated by Jews who aim at destroying the civilised peoples of Europe and setting up an international Jewish domination over them.

"Every quarrel within Bolshevism is more or less a Jewish family quarrel. The latest Moscow executions are solely a matter of Jews shooting Jews from hunger for power and will to destruction," he said.

Herr Goebbels warned the world to be on the watch against "Jewish Bolshevism," which he said, owing to its "international aggressive character," aimed at leading the peoples of the earth into Radicalism, Anarchism and Bolshevism.

Fears have been expressed that these diatribes may lead to a further persecution of Jews in the Reich. It seems, however, that Dr. Schacht has warned Herr Hitler that any more outrages on Jews will still further jeopardise German trade abroad which is already seriously affected all over the world by anti-Semitic legislation.

Moreover, Dr. Schacht informed the Fuehrer that these attacks might have serious effects within the Reich itself, and his misgivings are echoed by several correspondents, who take the line that Dr. Goebbels has over-reached himself and that the average German is becoming tired of this stale vituperation.

Dr. Goebbels said the happenings in Spain as well as the fact that Bolshevism was a reality in Russia, must be a matter of concern for the whole world. As reported last week in our cables, the Jews were also accused by the Nazis of causing the trouble in Spain.

The speeches have been received with astonishment in the English press.

Nuri Pasha and Jewish Immigration

NOT AUTHORISED TO GIVE ANY ASSURANCES TO ARABS.

Firm Denial by Colonial Secretary.

London, September 3rd.

THE assumption that Nuri Pasha, Foreign Minister of Iraq, has been in any way authorised either by Sir Arthur Wauchope, or by the British Government, to give any assurances to the Arab leaders on the question of Jewish immigration, is emphatically refuted by Mr. Ormsby-Gore, Secretary of State for the Colonies, in an official letter to Dr. Chaim Weizmann, in his capacity as President of the Jewish Agency for Palestine.

"No such terms have been agreed to either by the High Commissioner or by His Majesty's Government," Mr. Ormsby-Gore writes. "Moreover, there is no foundation for the suggestion which is referred to in the letter addressed on the 31st of August by the Jewish Agency to the High Commissioner that the High Commissioner has authorised Nuri Pasha to give assurances regarding measures, including the suspension of immigration, to be taken after the cessation of the disturbances. Not only has Nuri Pasha not been authorised to give any such assurances, but Sir Arthur Wauchope states he has not asked for any such authority, and, to the best of the High Commissioner's belief, Nuri Pasha has made it clear to the Arab leaders that he is not in a position to give any such assurances. No promises have been made to Nuri Pasha by the High Commissioner or by His Majesty's Government as regards either the suspension of immigration or his position as a mediator in the affairs of Palestine.

"The Secretary of State has no objection to your publishing this letter if you so desire."
