KATHARINE HEPBURN AS "MARY OF SCOTLAND."

The Colosseum Theatre's current attraction is a vivid historical drama depicting the years of Mary Stuart's life when she returned to Scotland to rule there as Queen. The part of the tragic Queen is very ably played by Katharine Hepburn, while Frederic March plays the role of the Earl of Bothwell, her lover. The intrigues of Queen Elizabeth (played by Florence Eldridge) and the treachery of Mary's own nobles, are also depicted in the film, and help to make "Mary of Scotland" a truly great historical picture.
