A Grand Ball

A grand ball will be held under the auspices of the Bransk and District Benevolent Society at the Selborne Hall, to-morrow night, the 6th inst. This function is a fine gesture on the part of the society, who are to use the proceeds to alleviate the position of the Jews of Bransk who have suffered several pogroms recently. Tables may be reserved by phoning the Hon. Secretary, 24-1622.

The Symphony Concert

Following its recent successes, the Johannesburg Symphony Orchestra is to hold its third concert at the City Hall on Tuesday next, the 9th inst. Miss Elsie Hall, the popular Cape Town pianist, will be the soloist, while the baton will be in the capable hands of Mr. Joseph Traunek.

The orchestra is a combination that plays with balanced precision, and lovers of symphonic music should find the programme a particularly attractive one. Miss Hall will play the Beethoven pianoforte concerto No. 4 in G major. Mr. Traunek's interpretation of the Haydn Symphony No. 1 in E Flat should be worth listening to. Other features of the programme are "L'Arlesienne" by Bizet, and "Capriccio Italiano" by Tschai-kowsky.

COLOSSEUM THEATRE ATTRACTION.

"I Met Him in Paris," which is the current attraction at the Colosseum Theatre, is a sparkling entertainment starring Claudette Colbert and Melvyn Douglas. These two stars were once before successfully teamed together in "She Married Her Boss," and this new picture is even more delightful. Robert Young is a prominent member of the supporting cast. The remainder of the programme is well up to standard.
