THE LATE MRS. JENNY ISAACS

An Appreciation

Words are inadequate to express what she meant to all with whom she came into contact. A devoted wife and helpmeet, an exemplary, unselfish mother, she was deservedly the queen of her home, and all those who were fortunate enough to be admitted to that home circle, felt that the happiness and harmony, the attachment of its members, each to the other, the whole delightful atmosphere, was due to the graciousness, kindness and sympathy of her beloved personality.

As to her public work, I had the good fortune to meet her 34 years ago, just after my arrival in this country. I should like to stress the point, that her valued co-operation, her loyalty, her unbounded sympathy and innate understanding, made it a joy to work with her. She never asserted herself unduly; was ever modest and retiring; but brought to her self-imposed task that true self-sacrifice, that service to the sick and suffering which marked her labours with the stamp of true nobility. Loved as she was, she will be truly mourned and missed by all and sundry, her memory will ever be a shining light in the hearts of her dear ones, with whom we all mourn to-day. A noble life! An inspiration to others!

Life's work well done
Life's goal well won
... Then comes rest.*

Mrs. Isaacs leaves a grown-up family, her children being Mrs. A. Atkins, Mr. J. Atkins, Mr. Henry Isaacs, Mr. ... Isaacs and Mr. Edgar Isaacs.

Forthcoming Mass Meeting in Benoni

MEMBERS of the Benoni Jewish community are urged to attend a "Mass Meeting" on Sunday, the 16th inst., at the Hebrew Hall, at 8.15 p.m.

The function is under the auspices of the local Zionist Youth Society and Mr. S. N. Herman, of the S.A. Zionist Federation, together with Mr. David Dunsky, chairman of the Transvaal Zionist Youth Executive, will address the gathering on problems confronting world Jewry at the present time. It is hoped that a full and representative gathering of Benoni Jewish residents, both senior and junior, will be present at the meeting.

"DOUBLE WEDDING" AT THE METRO

One of the snappiest and funniest films yet seen on the Rand is that delightful comedy, "Double Wedding," which enters its second week at the Metro Theatre to-day. William Powell in his versatile way, gives a delicious piece of fooling as the most lovable Bohemian one could wish to find. Myrna Loy is provocatively pert, while Florence Rice and John Beal as a lovesick pair are most amusing. Dean Herrick is at his best at the Wurlitzer, and the supporting programme is excellent.

Successful Boxing Tournament

The Transvaal National Sporting Club are to be congratulated on staging the first all-South African professional boxing tournament ever held in this country. In this way they have elevated the local sport, and encouraged the future stars of the fist world to do bigger things. Last Saturday night's tournament was what the fans wanted; sparkling, entertaining and interesting. The programme was top notch. Alec Hannan gave a fine exhibition and won his fight in kayo fashion. Then there was that clown of the ring, Tiger Burns (Ginger Levine), who, even if he threw away his fight in a moment of madcap fooling, fooled and punched and kept the crowd in humour.

On the whole, the tournament was a sparkling one. The Transvaal National Sporting Club did well to bring such a feast of local boxing to the enthusiastic fans.

GRAND DRAMA AT COLOSSEUM.

That brilliant English actor, Clive Brook, is at his best in "Action for Slander," a London Films production now showing at the Colosseum Theatre. Based on a best-seller by Mary Borden, this gripping drama has not a dull moment. A very human story, it should have a wide appeal for film fans. Charles Manning with the Colosseum Orchestra is only one of a number of entertaining items in the supporting programme.
