CHIEF RABBI DR. J. L. LANDAU

Recovering from Illness

The many friends of Chief Rabbi, Dr. J. L. Landau, will be pleased to hear that he is making steady progress and is gradually recovering from the recent serious illness which still detains him and Mrs. Landau in Capetown.

At a meeting of the Executive Council of the S.A. Zionist Federation, it was decided to send a telegram to Dr. Landau conveying the best wishes for complete and speedy recovery. A wire was received from Mrs. Landau that enquiries as to Dr. Landau's health were greatly appreciated, and that he was steadily progressing.

Abrahamson—Berman

The marriage of Goldie, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. I. Berman, of Volksrust, to Aaron (Oekie) only son of Mr. and Mrs. Abrahamson, of Pretoria, was solemnised at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue on Sunday, the 1st inst.

The Rev. A. T. Shrock, assisted by Cantor Alter, officiated. The unterfuhrers were Mr. B. Berman (uncle of the bride), Mrs. Berman (the bride's mother), and Mr. and Mrs. Abrahamson (parents of the bridegroom). The duties of best man were carried out by Mr. Harry Goldfain. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, was attended by Mrs. Minnie Berman, as matron of honour, the Misses Betty Nathan, Anne Hertzman, Norma Miller and Goldie Berman as bridesmaids, and Naomi Israel, Anne, Elaine and Muriel Berman, as flower girls.

During the largely-attended reception subsequently held at the Coronation Hall, Mr. Israel Dunsky proposed the toast of the bride and bridegroom, to which Mr. Abrahamson responded. A collection was held and the amount of £20 was secured to inscribe the names of the bride and bridegroom in the Golden Book of the Jewish National Fund.

Mr. Abrahamson is one of the keenest Zionist workers in this country and is an important member of the staff of the S.A. Zionist Federation, holding the position of secretary of the S.A. Zionist Youth Council. He is a gifted lecturer, speaker and writer on Zionist subjects. Mrs. Abrahamson comes from a well-known Zionist family and was at one time hon. treasurer of the Volksrust Zionist Society.
