

" JEWS AND GENTILES "

From Mr. B. FAERBER

(Willowdene)

To the Editor of the "Zionist Record"

Sir,—Recently a plaque was unveiled at the Presbyterian Church, Fairview, in memory of the late Rev. Dr. James Gray. This gentleman had been popular among citizens and much respected by members of the Jewish community; he certainly must have had friends and acquaintances among the latter. I was, therefore, sorry to see so few Jews present on this occasion when his memory was being honoured.

The Society of Jews and Christians is doing good work not only in Johannesburg, but also in Kimberley and in Capetown, in promoting friendship between Jews and Gentiles and in furthering mutual feelings of respect and interest. But an obligation also devolves upon individuals in the community to help attain these ends, and one way in which this can be done is by attending services in honour of departed citizens of other denominations.

Some time ago I received an invitation as a resident in a particular district for many years to attend the Jubilee Service of a church built there (25 years previously). I attended the service and presented the clergyman of the church with the "Book of Jewish Thoughts," compiled during the Great War by Dr. J. H. Hertz, Chief Rabbi of the British Empire. This book was very well received by the recipient as could be seen from his letter of acknowledgment.

Perhaps it would not be out of place to mention here that my letter accompanying the presentation contained the following passage: "I am born a Jew and in my own deeper introspection and study in matters of religious beliefs I remain convinced according to our teaching in the oneness of the Almighty God. As such, I can enter any House of Prayer of any denomination and join with the congregation in the prayers to the Almighty."

There is no need for any Jew, to my mind, to shun entrance into a church if the good sense of citizenship and fellowship demands it.

Incidentally, it may be mentioned here that the difference between the fundamental beliefs in the Jewish and Christian faiths were greatly reduced by the findings of the Anglican Church Commission which were reported in the daily press some time ago.

Yours, etc.,

B. Faerber.

PRETORIA ACTIVITIES

Address by Mr. L. A. Pincus

An outstanding address on "Jewry and Palestine To-day" was delivered by Mr. L. A. Pincus, a member of the S.A. Zionist Federation, at a mass meeting of Pretoria Jewry, held under the auspices of the Men's Zionist Society, on Sunday, the 28th ult. Mr. J. E. Wilsker was in the chair.

In the course of his thorough and concise survey of the Zionist situation to-day, Mr. Pincus said that the four fronts on which the Zionist battle was to-day being waged were the internal front, the Palestinian, Central Europe and in the Democracies. Mr. Pincus also stressed the South African aspect of his subject and urged his audience, notwithstanding the war situation, to intensify their Zionist activities wherein lay the only permanent solution to the Jewish problem.

Mr. Len Kaplan, in expressing the thanks of the audience to the speaker, stated that he had seldom heard so clear and logical an exposition of the Jewish problem in relation to the present situation as he had that evening, and expressed the hope that Jewry would adopt the positive attitude outlined by the speaker.

Honoar.—The first annual ball of the society, which was held on Saturday, the 20th ult., proved an outstanding success. The Benoni Zionist Youth were guests of the society and were entertained in Pretoria over the week-end.

Yeoville Hebrew Kindergarten

The annual general meeting of the Yeoville Hebrew Kindergarten will take place on Thursday, 8th February, at 10.30 a.m. at the Yeoville Synagogue.

The Kindergarten has re-opened this year in spacious new premises, boasting up-to-date equipment and a piano. A delightful lawn adjoining the premises provides gardening opportunities for the little pupils. Generally, the Kindergarten's educational methods are concerned with all aspects of the child's development. Above all the children are learning the Hebrew language by the simplest and most direct methods and also acquiring a rudimentary knowledge of modern Palestine and of the traditions of Judaism, so that it is hoped that the Kindergarten will represent a corner of Eretz Israel in the Galuth.

The committee, under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Wolpert, has spared no effort in re-organising the Kindergarten on its new basis and parents and members of the public are invited to visit the little pupils at work.

Miss Glazer, formerly of Capetown, is now in charge of the Hebrew section, and Mrs. Feldt who has qualified in nursery school work is responsible for the English section of the teaching. Children between the ages of three to six years are accepted as pupils—those of six years and over being prepared for entrance to Government primary schools. All enquiries can be made at the Kindergarten or addressed to the Secretary, Mrs. D. Polnay, 35 Pretoria Street, 'phone 44-1359.
