Weddings

Linken—Rich

On Sunday last, at the Temple Israel, Johannesburg, the marriage was solemnised of Miss Sylvia Linken, daughter of Mrs. M. Linken and the late Mr. Linken, of London, and Mr. J. M. Rich, formerly of London, and now secretary of the S.A. Jewish Board of Deputies. Rabbi M. C. Weiler officiated at the ceremony. Mr. G. Osrin was the best man and Miss Eva Halfteck was the maid of honour.

After the ceremony, a largely attended reception was held at the Langham Hotel.

In proposing the toast of the bride and bridegroom, Mr. Cecil Lyons (Chairman of the S.A. Jewish Board of Deputies) said that the gathering that morning was a demonstration of the high esteem in which the newlywed couple was held. He paid tribute to the services on the Board of Deputies of Mr. Rich, and to his popularity among his colleagues. Miss Linken, too, had been associated with communal work in the office of the S.A. Friends of the Hebrew University, and the marriage of these two had been welcomed by the large number of friends they both had made.

The bridegroom suitably responded to the toast.

MUSIC FESTIVAL OPENS

First Concert at the City Hall

On Tuesday last the first concert of this year's Music Festival was held in the City Hall before a large audience. Mr. John Connell conducted the S.A. Broadcasting Corporation Orchestra, which gave a fine account of itself. The programme was a varied and interesting one.

The orchestra played compositions of Haydn, Mendelssohn and Sibelius. Interesting items were also Walton's "Facade Suite" and Elgar's famous "Pomp and Circumstance March 2." The soloist, Miss Millie van Geuns, demonstrated her fine ability as a piano player. In the Allegretto Scherzando she displayed considerable vivacity and there was much charm in her Mozart and Greig items.

The first concert of the Music Festival was successful, and there should be a good audience again next Tuesday evening at the City Hall.

PURIM BALL

To be Held in March

The Purim Ball organised annually by the Johannesburg Women's Zionist League, in aid of the Jewish National Fund, has always attracted a large number of dancers and its popularity has grown to such an extent that this year the organising committee, under the energetic leadership of Mrs. Maurice Franks, have again found it necessary to engage the whole of the first floor of the Carlton Hotel for the Ball on March 27. The ballroom and one of the palm courts will be used for dancing and there will be two bands.
