A WEDDING IN JOHANNESBURG

Sacks—Idelson

The wedding was solemnised on Sunday morning last at the Yeoville Synagogue of Miss Anne Sacks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Sacks, and Mr. Jerry Idelson, both of Johannesburg.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Backon, assisted by a specially augmented choir under the direction of Rev. G. Grosberg. There was a large congregation present. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sacks and Mr. and Mrs. J. Prissman. The best man was Lieut. Alec Packard and the poleholders were L/Cpl. Roy Karlin, Messrs. Morris Berman, Benny Prissman and Felix Shamos. The matron of honour was Mrs. Sarah Bloomberg.

After the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Prissman in Observatory. Music was supplied by a number of members of the Johannesburg Broadcasting Orchestra, of which both bride and bridegroom are prominent members.

Among the guests were many well-known members of the musical world, including Mr. Theo Wendt and Mr. Jerry Schulman, conductors of the S.A. Broadcasting Orchestra.

A felicitous speech was made by Mr. I. Greenberg, on behalf of the Johannesburg Jewish Reform Congregation, of which the bridegroom is one of the founders. Mr. Greenberg extended the good wishes of the movement to Mr. and Mrs. Idelson, to which the bridegroom suitably responded.

The newly-married couple were the recipients of a large number of congratulatory messages from all parts of South Africa.
