Successful Concert Last Saturday Night

An enthusiastic audience filled the City Hall on Saturday night last for the grand celebrity concert organised by Cantor Albert Lubliner in aid of the South African Red Cross.

The artists who contributed to an excellent and varied programme were Radio Cossacks' Balalaika Orchestra, Gerald Cassen, Dorothy Clark, Freda Gross, Rita Roseman, Sophie Peck, Edward Smurthwaite, Ann Nell, Marjorie Ward, Dirk Lourens, Lilian Abbott, Audrey and George Harvey, Faith de Villiers and Wally Johnson. Irene Margo was the accompanist, and Morry Blake the compere.

South African war funds have benefited to the extent of more than £3,000 as the result of concerts organised by Cantor Albert Lubliner in Johannesburg and Durban.

Success of "Double Door"

"Double Door," now showing at the Library Theatre, is a thriller that really deserves the name, and Carol Levitas and her cast of Repertory Players have done a splendid job. Between them they have built up the sinister atmosphere of the play till it reaches a cumulative pitch of tension and excitement which leaves the audience gasping. This atmosphere is maintained from the rise of the curtain to its fall.

The part of Victoria van Bret, the tyrant and matriarch of her family, is played by Taubie Kushlik with force and skill, and she gives a remarkable performance. The meek sister, Caroline, played by Pearle Celine, is very well portrayed, and competent work is also done by Maureen Lewis as Anne, and Julius Sergay as Rio. Theatre-goers should indeed be grateful to Miss Levitas for her excellent production.
