A CONCERT IN BENONI Zionist Socialist Party's Successful Function

Under the auspices of the Benoni Branch of the Zionist Socialist Party, a successful concert was held at the Small Town Hall, Benoni, on Tuesday, 29th September. Mrs. Harry Phillips and a group of devoted workers were responsible for the organising of this function, the proceeds of which will go to the dependants of Palestinian Jewish soldiers and Medical Aid for Russia.

The following artists contributed to the programme: Mr. Bruno Raikin (piano), Cantor S. Mandel (songs), Lilla Miller, well-known on the radio as Lilla Emdin (songs), Tamara Samsonov (dramatic renderings in Hebrew and English). Mrs. J. J. Fine accompanied the artists at the piano. During interval, tea was served by the Committee of Medical Aid for Russia.

An Appeal for Habimah.

After the concert an informal gathering took place at the home of Mrs. Harry Phillips. After Bruno Raikin had played some improvisations and Tamara Samsonov had sung Palestinian songs, Mrs. Ethel Hayman, chairman of the Habimah Circle in South Africa, made an appeal for the Habimah—the Jewish National theatre in Palestine. Her appeal met with a most generous response.

BRAKPAN WOMEN'S ZIONIST LEAGUE

A large gathering was present at the fortnightly Sewing Circle recently held at the home of Mrs. N. Gamsu. During the afternoon, Mrs. Altshuler, wife of the Rev. In other directions Brakpan women Zionists continue to work well. Their J.N.F. pledge has been fulfilled and all monthly pledges for the Keren Hayesod are up to date.
