

Mischa Elman.

FAREWELL CONCERT IN CAPE TOWN.

Music lovers will have a last opportunity of paying tribute to a master musician, Mischa Elman, as in response to numerous requests, this brilliant genius of the violin will give a grand farewell concert at the City Hall on Tuesday next prior to his return to Europe on the 13th August.

No violin virtuoso has met with a more enthusiastic reception in this country than Elman. The famous "Elman tone" has come to be recognised as the hallmark of excellence so far as the violin is concerned.

In Johannesburg he gave seven successive concerts at the Empire and Colosseum Theatres respectively and each of them was packed to capacity. Visits to Bloemfontein, Port Elizabeth, Kimberley and other centres have been phenomenally successful and the farewell concert to be given next Tuesday should be well attended.

Vladimir Padwa will be the accompanist. Booking plans are now open at the Central Booking Office (Grand Theatre).
