"It Goes with a Swing."ROLLO GAMBLE TAKES OVER PRODUCTION.

With only three weeks to go before the opening night, the cast of the bright revue which Mrs. Morris Alexander has organized in aid of the Jewish National Fund for the 7th and the 15th December at the City Hall were disconcerted to hear that the producer, Mrs. Sylvia Nell, had suddenly taken ill.

Mr. Rollo Gamble however, who has been watching the progress of rehearsals with interest for some time, has stepped in and filled the breach, and with this very able producer to see the show through a splendid programme will achieve that added touch of artistry and slickness which Cape Town audiences have learned to associate with his name.

The company are particularly appreciative of this gesture on the part of Mr. Gamble in view of the fact that he had booked his passage to Europe for the 3rd of December, and has now cancelled his reservation and is remaining on for the express purpose of directing "It Goes with a Swing" to a successful finish.

Plans for booking open at Polliacks on Monday, 29th November, to cast, Committee and the general public, and tickets may also be obtained from Miss Harris, Secretary, Bnoth Zion Office, 34, Plein Street.

Film Stars at the Alhambra.

The big film star and vaudeville company show opens at the Alhambra Theatre on Monday. Some surprising novelties will be seen, including a realistic scene from the famous Popeye cartoons in which Billy Costello will play the central figure.

Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon will present their domestic comedy sketch which was an outstanding success at the London Palladium. Bebe Daniels will also present an excerpt from the film "Rio Rita" during which she will wear the original Rio Rita dress.

Len Young, the inimitable London comedian, who specially deferred a big film contract to come to this country, will show the Cape Town public something new in comedy entertainment, and Anita Martell, the 16-year-old girl juggler whose hands are insured for £1,000, infuses her act with a lot of interest and fun.

Then there will be the scintillating little American comedienne, Zelma O'Neal, and other artists who will appear include Juana and Juanita, accordionists from the Argentine, Alec Findlay, popular Scottish comedian, and the MacDonald Twins and Mills novelty dancers. The charming Empire Girls will dance their way through a joyous programme.
