ROYAL

In "The Firefly," which comes to the Royal on Monday, Jeanette MacDonald, filmdom's foremost singing actress, fresh from her triumph in "Maytime," is teamed for the first time with tenor Allan Jones in this, her 17th film musical. The two were heard together once before in the operatic sequences of "Rose Marie," but this is their first teaming as principals and represents Jones' greatest opportunity to date. He recently completed the juvenile singing lead in the Marx Brothers' "A Day at the Race." Warren Williams, newly signed to an M.-G.-M. starring contract, completes the lead trio as Major de Rougemont, staff aide of Napoleon and suitor of Nina Azara, "The Firefly," Spain's most famous entertainer of the period, played by Miss MacDonald. Jones appears as Don Diego, swashbuckling young Spanish grandee.

In the supporting cast are Billy Gilbert, Henry Daniell, Douglas Dumbrille, Leonard Penn, Tom Rutherford, Belle Mitchell, George Zucco, Corbett Morris and Matthew Boulton.
