An evening of novel entertainment, a debate of vital importance and a dance have been arranged. All are welcome.

GREEN AND SEA POINT J.G.

Meetings. On Sunday, 21st May, the Guild held the most interesting meeting of the year, when Mr. I. Kessler lectured on "Anecdotes from a Globe Trotter." He dealt principally with his stay in America, when he visited the various studios and playhouses.

Mr. Kessler consented to continue his lecture at the next meeting to be held on Monday, June 5th.

Sokolow Circle. The next meeting will be held on Friday, 26th May, at the residence of Mrs. Kleinman, "Sunholme," Clarence Road, Sea Point. Mrs. Lieberman will be the speaker for the evening.

The last circle meeting was held on Friday, 12th May, at the residence of Cantor and Mrs. Katzin, and there was an interesting discussion on the papers that were read. Miss L. Arens acted as convenor.

Stellenbosch Rally. Any members who wish to attend this function and have not handed in their names, must communicate with the Chairman immediately.

Entertainment Sub-Committee. After the next function, three volunteers will be asked to arrange functions and the one who organises the best one, in the opinion of the members, will be awarded a complimentary ticket to the Annual Dance.

GORDONIA ZIONIST SOCIETY UPINGTON.

Dr. Birnbaum, Director of Jewish Education at the Cape, spoke in an interesting manner on "The Three Main Parties in the Zionist Movement, and their Historical Background," while on tour recently.

There was a fair amount of discussion. Mr. B. Nurick passed a vote of thanks.

A Lag B'omer Picnic was held on the 7th May at Blomsmond, a nearby farm.

It was an enjoyable outdoor function. Several members of the Society accompanied Dr. Birnbaum to Kenhardt where a Zionist Society was to be formed.

C.T. HERZLIA.

WORCESTER J.Z.S.

A general meeting was held on 20th inst., when Miss M. Volks read the News Bulletin and Mr. H. Abramowitz gave an instructive talk on "The White Paper," and L. Hodes read an article "The J.N.F. Marches On." The meeting unanimously protested against the latest Palestine Policy of the British Government. These were followed by a debate "Zionism First, Then South Africa," proposed by Mr. J. Wurwand, supported by Mr. A. Bloch and opposed by Miss Joyce Volks and Mr. P. Sacks. The motion was carried after much discussion by a large majority.

Mrs. E. Maissel, Mr. B. Goldin and Mr. R. Rabinowitz of the Executive made a belated appearance. A lively sing-song rounded off the best meeting of the year.

C.T. YOUNG MIZRACHI.

Special Hebrew Classes for beginners are about to start under the excellent tutorage of Chaver L. Sandler, B.A. All those wishing to join must please communicate with the Secretary.
