COLOSSEUM.

"Here Comes Mr. Jordan," now showing at the Colosseum, is described as the surprise picture of the year. Different in many ways from the usual run of pictures it gets under one's skin and envelopes one in memorable laughter. It is a film accomplishment that breaks all the rules. Robert Montgomery is starred in the greatest role of his career, and the supporting cast includes Claude Rains, Evelyn Keyes, James Gleason, Edward Everett Horton and Rita Johnson.

Odeon and Curzon

Filmed in spectacular technicolour, the exciting climax to the daring exploits of the world's most famous outlaws comes simultaneously to the screen of the Odeon Theatre, Sea Point, and Curzon Theatre, Wynberg, to-morrow in the 20th Century-Fox production, "The Return of Frank James."

The millions of moviegoers who thrilled to last year's "Jesse James" will find this new Darryl F. Zanuck production even more colourful and action-packed. "Jesse James" players fill most of the important roles. Henry Fonda, who created the part of Frank James, Jesse's grim, older brother, is cast in the title role. Others appearing in the production who were also featured in "Jesse James" include Henry Hull,

John Carradine, J. Edward Bromberg, Donald Meek, Ernest Whitman, Charles Tannen and George Chandler. The cast is completed by Gene Tierney and Jackie Cooper, who are featured, and such popular favourites as Eddie Collins and George Barbier.

PLAZA.

At the Plaza Theatre, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland head the cast in "Babes on Broadway," which has been acclaimed as the "world's fastest show." Beyond question it is one of the finest and funniest of M-G-M musicals. Thirteen-year-old Virginia Weidler in this film proves that in addition to her dramatic ability she can both sing and dance. Also in the cast are Fay Bainter, Ray McDonald, Donald Meek and crowds of jolly people.

Cape Town Municipal Orchestra.

Miss Betty Pack will be the soloist at the Symphony Concert next Thursday evening, May 21st, at the City Hall. She will play Bloch's Schelomo (Solomon) Concerto for cello and orchestra, based on traditional Hebrew melodies.

Pidyan Haben.

The Pidyan Haben of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Galansky was held at "Triangle," Alexander Road, Muizenberg, on Sunday, 10th May. The Rev. M. J. Cohen officiated. After the ceremony Mr. Phillips, President of the Muizenberg and Kalk Bay Hebrew Congregation, presided at a reception to relatives and friends. Rev. Cohen addressed the gathering and explained the significance and meaning of the Pidyan Haben ceremony. He then presented the Redemption money to be sold per American auction, Mr. Korf being the auctioneer. A sum of £5 18s., sufficient to inscribe the infant in the Sefer Hayered and to purchase 13 trees in his name was realised, the purchasers being the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Becker. Rev. I. Frank and Rev. Rabinowitz, of Cape Town, also spoke.
