JOHN WAYNE - MARTHA SCOTT

"IN OLD OKLAHOMA"

ALHAMBRA.

Capturing the spirit of hardy adventure and high romance characteristic of the pioneer southwest. Republic brings a long-anticipated and widely-publicised historical drama to the Alhambra next week—"In Old Oklahoma," starring John Wayne and Martha Scott. Based on a magazine story, "War of the Wildcats," by Thomson Burtis.

Ella Goldstein, the brilliant 17-year-old pianist, who is still attracting crowded audiences to her recitals in Johannesburg, arrives in Cape Town on 4th December to give her first recital at the Alhambra Theatre on Thursday, 7th December. The total proceeds of this recital will be handed over to Ouma's Gifts and Comforts Fund and an influential committee has been convened by the Mayor of Cape Town to assure the raising of a substantial amount. Tickets are now on sale at £2 and £1 and seats may be reserved at the Alhambra, as well as all theatres on African Consolidated Theatres Ltd. circuit.

The programme to be presented will be: "Chaconne in D Minor," Bach-Busoni; "Carnaval" (22 musical pictures), Schumann; "Ballade No. 3 in Flat (a), "Andante Spianato" and "Polonaise Brillante" (b), Chopin; "Andalusia," Granados; "Danse Rituelle du Feu," De Falla; "Sevilla," Albeniz; "Campanella," Liszt-Busoni.

ODEON and CURZON.

Dick Powell, Jackie Oakie, Edgar Kennedy and Linda Darnell give excellent performances in the comedy fantasy "It Happened To-morrow" at the Odeon and Curzon this week. Even if the story is fantastic and far-fetched (it is supposed to be nothing more than that) it certainly provides much mirth and comical situations. Dick Powell, a reporter, is able to get hold of copies of his paper running stories that happened the next day, and as a result there are some startling sequences. His prior knowledge of racing results enables him to win fabulous sums of money and, incidentally, he wins a charming bride (Linda Darnell). "It Happened To-morrow" is definitely a lot of fun.

PLAZA.

"An American Romance" is one of the longest and quite one of the most ambitious M.G.M. pictures since "Gone with the Wind." Special starting times will be announced in the daily Press. It is an epic story which has its beginnings with two immigrants, a girl from Ireland and a youth from Czechoslovakia. The theme deals with their beautiful romance but its background is the tremendous panorama of modern industry. Filmed entirely in technicolour, there is much that cannot possibly be described. Brian Donlevy, Ann Richards and many well-known players take part.
