Forthcoming Jewish Concert

Mr. Paul Braitman, the well-known cantor and singer, will present a programme of the latest Jewish folksongs, arias and Chazanut at the Zionist Hall on Saturday, 6th January, 1945, at 8.15 p.m., together with Vera Kanevskia who will render popular Jewish songs and impersonations.

Mr. Braitman, through his fine vocal gifts, has won for himself a high reputation; a dramatic tenor, the music of Jewish legend appeals to him more than any other type and he imbues it with life and colour.

Vera Kanevskia has a long record of stage successes and portrays with vivid power the wonderful folk songs of her people.

The concert by these two artists will be an outstanding event and should not be missed by the Jewish public. Booking at Darters.

Holiday Fair at Muizenberg.

The Annual Holiday Fair which will take place at the Muizenberg Pavilion on Tuesday, 2nd January, 1945, will be opened by Adv. Joseph Herstein, K.C., at 10 a.m.

The stall-holders are working exceedingly hard, and the variety of goods displayed on the various stalls should prove a real magnet for all, and will compensate the workers for the energy they have exercised.

A special evening attraction has been arranged.

ODEON and CURZON.

The love of three men for one woman forms the basis of the story of "Summer Storm," an exciting drama of passion and violence, which opens tomorrow at the Odeon, Sea Point, and Curzon, Wynberg. George Sanders and Linda Darnell are starred with Anna Lee and Edward Everett Horton playing featured roles. The picture is filmed against the background of the brittle, decadent Russia of the Czars. Seymour Nebenzal produced this United Artists release and Douglas Sirk directed.

PLAZA.

The first epic story of modern, war-torn China to reach the screen is "Dragon Seed," the new M.G.M. picture which is coming to the Plaza. Adapted from the Pearl Buck best-seller, the film had almost two years of intensive, thorough preparation. Purchased in 1942, since that time the entire resources of the studio were directed toward the production of this moving and dynamic story of one Allied nation that has been up on the firing line against oppression for years. An exceptional cast includes Katharine Hepburn, Walter Huston, Aline MacMahon, Akim Tamiroff, and Turhan Bey.

COLOSSEUM.

Fun and frolic against a dancing, romancing background make up the theme of "The Sky's the Limit," the new Fred Astaire-Joan Leslie musical offering which is the Colosseum's next attraction. Robert Benchley heads the featured cast and Freddie Slack and his orchestra supply the music. The film deals with the hectic adventures of a fighter pilot on leave in New York City when he tries to keep his identity a secret and win a girl's affections at the same time.

ALHAMBRA.

"Crazy House," newest and dizziest of the Olsen and Johnson screen comedies, comes to the Alhambra on Monday. Presented by Universal, the new fun-film is said to be even funnier than "Hellzapoppin'" and features one of the largest aggregations of popular talent ever packed into one movie. Notables in the huge cast include Cass Daley, Martha O'Driscoll, Patric Knowles and Thomas Gomez.
